The Liquor and Gaming Authority

DIVISION 1

Continuation and Purpose

Authority continued

- 3(1) The Liquor and Gaming Authority is continued as a corporation consisting of the persons appointed as members by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.
- (2) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may create a seal for the authority.
- (3) The authority shall:
 - (a) pay to the members of the authority the remuneration determined by the Lieutenant Governor in Council; and
 - (b) reimburse members of the authority for travelling and living expenses at rates established by the Public Service Commission.
- (4) Every member of the authority holds office at pleasure and, notwithstanding the expiry of any term designated by the Lieutenant Governor in Council for the member, continues to hold office until his or her successor is appointed.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.3.

Act to be administered by authority

4(1) The authority shall administer this Act.

(2) The authority is responsible to the minister in the performance of its responsibilities and the exercise of its powers.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.4.

Agent of the Crown

5 The authority:

(a) is for all its purposes an agent of the Crown and may exercise its powers pursuant to this Act only as an agent of the Crown;

(b) has capacity to contract and to sue and be sued in its name respecting any right acquired or obligation incurred by it on behalf of the Crown as if the right or obligation had been acquired or incurred on its own behalf;

(c) may sue respecting any tort, and may be sued respecting any liabilities in tort, to the extent to which the Crown is subject by reason of The Proceedings against the Crown Act; and

(d) may contract in the authority's name on behalf of the Crown without specific reference to the Crown.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.5.

Head office

6 The head office of the authority is to be at any place in Saskatchewan designated by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.6.

DIVISION 2

Directors, Committees and Employees

Board of directors

7(1) A board of directors of the authority, consisting of those persons who are appointed as members of the authority, shall manage the affairs and business of the authority.

(2) The authority may do any act or thing pursuant to this Act by way of a resolution of the board of directors.

(3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may designate one of the members of the board of directors as chairperson and another member as vice-chairperson.

(4) Where the chairperson is absent or unable to act or the office of chairperson is vacant, the vice-chairperson or, in the absence of the vice-chairperson, any other member may act in the place of the chairperson.

(5) All acts performed by the vice-chairperson or a member pursuant to subsection (4) have the same force and effect as if they had been performed by the chairperson.

(6) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may fix the number of members of the board of directors that constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at meetings of the board of directors.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.7.

Executive committee

8(1) The board of directors may:

- (a) appoint from its number an executive committee; and
 - (b) delegate to the executive committee any powers that it considers necessary for the efficient conduct of the affairs and business of the authority.
- (2) A member of the executive committee holds office until he or she:
- (a) is removed by the board of directors; or
 - (b) has ceased to be a member of the board of directors.
- (3) The executive committee may exercise any powers of the board of directors that are delegated to it by resolution of the board of directors, subject to any restrictions contained in the resolution.
- (4) The executive committee shall:
- (a) fix its quorum at not less than a majority of its members;
 - (b) keep minutes of its proceedings; and
 - (c) submit to the board of directors, at each meeting of the board of directors, the minutes of the executive committee's proceedings during the period since the most recent meeting of the board of directors.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.8.

Advisory committees

9 The board of directors may:

- (a) appoint any advisory committees that it considers necessary for the efficient conduct of the affairs and business of the authority;
- (b) set out the duties of any committee appointed pursuant to clause (a); and
- (c) fix the remuneration and allowances for expenses of members of any committee appointed pursuant to clause (a).

1997, c.A-18.011, s.9.

Employees

10(1) The authority shall appoint a person to be the chief executive officer of the authority who shall have supervision over and direction of the work of the staff of the authority.

(2) The authority may:

- (a) employ persons required for the administration of its responsibilities pursuant to this Act, the regulations and the rules of horse racing and may determine their respective powers, duties, terms of employment and remuneration;
- (b) engage the services of experts and persons having special technical or other knowledge;
- (c) appoint persons or categories of persons for the purpose of enforcing all, or any provision, of this Act, the regulations and the rules of horse racing respecting all, or any geographic area, of Saskatchewan;
- (d) appoint any person to conduct investigations for the purposes of this Act, the regulations and the rules of horse racing; and
- (e) delegate to any employee of the authority any or all of its powers, including the power to issue, grant, refuse, suspend or cancel permits, horse-racing licences and certificates of registration and the power to assess penalties pursuant to section 39.1.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.10; 1998, c.16, s.3.

Conflict of interest

11(1) A member or an employee of the authority, as owner, part owner, partner, member of a syndicate, shareholder, agent or employee, whether for his or her own benefit or in a fiduciary capacity for another person, shall not:

- (a) be directly or indirectly interested or engaged in any business or undertaking dealing in beverage alcohol;
- (b) be any of the following:

 - (f.2) subject to subsection (2), make grants to any person, agency, organization, association, institution or body for the purposes mentioned in clause (f.1), on any terms and conditions that the authority considers appropriate;
 - (f.3) subject to subsection (2), make a grant in lieu of any taxes owed to any municipality in which the authority owns real property, on any terms and conditions that the authority considers appropriate;
 - (f.4) subject to subsection (2), make grants to any of the following on any terms and conditions that the authority considers appropriate:
 - (i) a charitable or religious organization that:
 - (A) has been issued a licence pursuant to clause 207(1)(b) of the Criminal Code by the authority or a First Nation gaming licensing authority; and
 - (B) has satisfactorily complied with the terms and conditions of the licence mentioned in paragraph (A) in the opinion of the authority;
 - (ii) Hospitals of Regina Foundation Inc.;
 - (iii) Royal University Hospital Foundation Inc.;
 - (iv) St. Paul's Hospital Foundation Inc.;
 - (v) Saskatoon City Hospital Foundation Inc.;
 - (g) perform any other duties that may be designated by the Lieutenant Governor in Council; and
 - (h) do any other things the authority considers advisable or necessary for the purpose of carrying out the intent of this Act.
- (2) The authority shall obtain the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council before making each grant pursuant to clause (1)(f.2), (f.3) or (f.4) that is greater than $50,000 in any fiscal year of the authority.

Powers respecting sales and stores

14 In accordance with this Act and the regulations, the authority may:

- (a) purchase, import and have in its possession and sell beverage alcohol, and furnish stocks of beverage alcohol to stores, franchises and permittees;
- (b) determine the location, construction, accommodation, furnishings, equipment, operation and management of its stores, franchises and warehouses;
- (c) determine the places in which its stores, franchises and warehouses are to be established and have the general control, management and supervision of those stores and warehouses in Saskatchewan;
- (d) determine the days and hours that stores and franchises are to be kept open for the sale of beverage alcohol;
- (e) where it has established a store or franchise, close the store or revoke the franchise for any reason it considers sufficient;
- (f) fix the prices at which any class, variety or brand of beverage alcohol may be sold by the authority and provide for the making and distribution of price lists for each class, variety or brand of beverage alcohol to be kept for sale pursuant to this Act; and
- (g) limit the area where a franchise may sell beverage alcohol to a permittee.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.14.

Powers respecting lottery schemes

15(1) The authority may act as a registrant.

(2) With the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, and in accordance with any directions that the Lieutenant Governor in Council may prescribe, the authority may conduct and manage lottery schemes for the Government of Saskatchewan:

- (a) within Saskatchewan; or
- (b) within Saskatchewan and another province of Canada in accordance with any agreement entered into pursuant to subsection (3).

(3) With the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the authority, on behalf of the Government of Saskatchewan, may enter into any agreement with the government of another province for the purpose of clause (2)(b).

(4) For the purpose of conducting lottery schemes for the Government of Saskatchewan pursuant to subsection (2), the authority may:

- (a) respecting any premises in which it conducts a lottery scheme, determine:
 - (i) the location and construction of the premises;
 - (ii) the furnishings and equipment to be used in the premises; and
 - (iii) the operation and management of the premises;
- (b) control, manage and supervise the premises in which it conducts a lottery scheme;

- (c) respecting a lottery scheme conducted and managed by the authority, enter into agreements with any person:
 - (i) for the conduct of operations; or
 - (ii) for the provision of services; and
- (d) subject to the regulations:
 - (i) determine the lottery schemes and games, operations and devices to be used respecting a lottery scheme conducted by the authority;
 - (ii) determine the consideration to be paid by persons participating in the lottery scheme; and
 - (iii) determine the kinds and amounts of prizes available to participants in the lottery scheme.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.15.

Authority may become shareholder

16 The authority may:

- (a) become a shareholder or member in any corporation to which a licence is issued;
- (b) appoint persons to act as directors of a corporation mentioned in clause (a);
- (c) participate in any way it considers advisable in the affairs of a corporation mentioned in clause (a); and
- (d) enter into agreements or arrangements with a corporation mentioned in clause (a).

1997, c.A-18.011, s.16.

Powers respecting horse racing

17(1) The authority may make rules for the conduct of horse racing and may adopt by reference, in whole or in part, with any changes that the authority considers necessary, rules and procedures of horse-racing associations.

- (2) In accordance with this Act and the rules of horse racing, the authority may:
 - (a) govern, direct, control, prohibit and regulate horse racing in any or all of its forms and the operation of racetracks in Saskatchewan;
 - (b) set out the qualifications for horse-racing licences;
 - (c) grant horse-racing licences to persons who operate racetracks, racetrack officials, owners, veterinarians, trainers, drivers, jockeys, apprentice jockeys, grooms, jockeys' agents, jockeys' valets, exercise riders, farriers, hot walkers, pony riders, tradespersons and any other person in or about racetracks that the authority determines should be licensed;
 - (d) set out the qualifications and terms for horse-racing registrations and require registration with the authority of colours, stable names, partnerships, authorized agents and anything else the authority considers appropriate;

- (e) register colours, stable names, partnerships, authorized agents and anything else prescribed by the authority;
 - (f) establish the forms for horse-racing licences, horse-racing registrations and applications;
 - (g) fix and collect fees or other charges for horse-racing licences and horse-racing registrations;
 - (h) set dates for and set out the form of horse-race meetings;
 - (i) require approval by the authority of the appointment by a person or body other than the authority of racetrack officials and employees whose duties relate to the actual running of horse races and compel the discharge for cause of any official or employee;
 - (j) require persons licensed to operate racetracks to keep books of account in a manner satisfactory to the authority, and may inspect those books at any time;
 - (k) assist in the development of horse racing in Saskatchewan by sponsoring equine research and making grants or loans to any person on any terms that the authority considers appropriate; and
 - (l) do any other things relating to horse racing in any or all of its forms or to the operation of racetracks that are authorized or directed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.
- (3) The authority shall not issue a horse-racing licence to an applicant unless, in the authority's opinion, the applicant is of good character.
- (4) No holder of a horse-racing licence shall fail to meet the requirement of good character at any time during the term of the horse-racing licence.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.17; 2002, c.42, s.6.

Horse racing enforcement and investigations

18(1) The authority may authorize a steward, harness racing judge, employee of the authority or person appointed pursuant to subsection 10(2) to:

- (a) enforce this Act and the rules of horse racing; and
 - (b) conduct an investigation into any matter when a person has or is suspected of having contravened this Act or the rules of horse racing or acted in a manner that is prejudicial to the best interests of horse racing.
- (2) A person who is authorized to enforce the rules of horse racing and conduct investigations when a person has or is suspected of having contravened the rules of horse racing or acted in a manner that is prejudicial to the best interests of horse racing may:
- (a) conduct a search on or near a racetrack:
 - (i) of any holder of a horse-racing licence who is involved in or who, on reasonable grounds, is suspected of being involved in the matter being investigated; or

- (ii) of any place, premises, vehicle or receptacle where there are reasonable grounds to believe that there is any thing that relates to the matter being investigated and, for the purposes of that investigation, seize that thing;
- (b) hold hearings relating to carrying out his or her duties and for that purpose may:
 - (i) summon any person by subpoena;
 - (ii) require that person to give evidence on oath; and
 - (iii) require that person to produce any documents and things that the person holding the hearing considers necessary; and
- (c) suspend or cancel the horse-racing licence of, or impose a fine or any other sanction on, any person who has contravened the rules of horse racing or acted in a manner that is prejudicial to the best interests of horse racing.
- (3) A decision made pursuant to clause (2)(c) is, for the purposes of this Act, a decision made by the authority.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.18.

Powers respecting licences, permits, etc.

19(1) Subject to this Act, the regulations and the rules of horse racing, the authority may:

- (a) grant any application for a licence, permit, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration or certificate of registration on any terms and conditions it considers appropriate;
- (b) grant endorsements to permits on any terms and conditions it considers appropriate;
- (c) refuse any application for a licence, permit, endorsement, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration or certificate of registration;
- (d) refer an application for a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement, horse-racing licence or certificate of registration to the commission for a hearing pursuant to clause 26(2)(a) if the authority is of the opinion that it is in the public interest to conduct a hearing;
- (e) determine the duration of licences, permits, endorsements, horse-racing licences, horse-racing registrations and certificates of registration;
- (f) suspend or cancel a licence on any terms and conditions it considers appropriate;
- (g) assess a penalty pursuant to section 39.1 against a permittee or registrant;
- (h) at the time it assesses a penalty pursuant to clause (g) against a permittee or registrant, determine the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full;
- (i) suspend a permit, endorsement or certificate of registration on any terms and conditions it considers appropriate, either alone or in conjunction with assessing a penalty pursuant to clause (g); and
- (j) cancel a permit, endorsement or certificate of registration on any terms and conditions it considers appropriate.

- (2) Respecting permits, the authority shall:
- (a) fix the price at which beverage alcohol may be sold by a permittee;
 - (b) determine the land or buildings that constitute premises with respect to which a permit may be issued; and
 - (c) regulate and restrict the nature and conduct of entertainment at any place where a permit is, or is to be, issued.
- (3) In exercising its power pursuant to clause (1)(b), the authority may establish a sealed bid process in accordance with the regulations to allocate an endorsement authorizing the sale of beverage alcohol, in closed containers of the type and quantity contained in the endorsement, for consumption off the permitted premises.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.19; 1998, c.16, s.4; 2000, c.36, s.4; 2014, c.7, s.5.

Power to enter into agreements with Canada

20(1) In this section:

“beverage alcohol” means beverage alcohol brought into Saskatchewan from outside Canada; («boisson alcoolisée»)

“customs officer” means an officer, as defined in the Customs Act (Canada), who is employed at a customs office in Saskatchewan. («agent de douane»)

- (2) The authority may enter into an agreement with the Government of Canada:
- (a) identifying the beverage alcohol or class of beverage alcohol to be covered by the agreement;
 - (b) appointing customs officers as agents of the authority to do the following on behalf of the authority:
 - (i) accept beverage alcohol;
 - (ii) collect and remit to the authority the mark-up set by the authority for the beverage alcohol accepted pursuant to subclause (i);
 - (iii) when the mark-up set by the authority has been paid, sell and release the beverage alcohol accepted pursuant to subclause (i) to the individual who brought the beverage alcohol into Saskatchewan from outside Canada; and
 - (iv) when the mark-up set by the authority has not been paid, detain and release to the authority the beverage alcohol accepted pursuant to subclause (i);
 - (c) authorizing the payment on behalf of the authority of a refund of all or a part of the mark-up collected pursuant to subclause (b)(ii) to the individual who paid the mark-up;
 - (d) prescribing the circumstances and conditions governing a payment pursuant to clause (c);

- (e) prescribing the manner in which and times at which a mark-up collected pursuant to subclause (b)(ii) must be remitted to the authority;
 - (f) respecting forms to be used in relation to beverage alcohol; and
 - (g) respecting any other matter in relation to beverage alcohol.
- (3) For the purpose of this section, the authority may set mark-ups on the resale price of beverage alcohol.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.20.

Subsidiaries

- 20.1(1) Subject to the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the authority may incorporate any other companies that it considers will directly or indirectly benefit the authority.
- (2) The authority may exercise its powers and may fulfil its purposes through any of its subsidiaries.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act and the regulations, any reference to the authority shall include its subsidiaries.

2014, c.7, s.6.

DIVISION 4 Liquor and Gaming Licensing Commission

- 21(1) The branch of the authority known as the Liquor and Gaming Licensing Commission is continued for the purposes of exercising the powers set out in this Act.
- (2) The commission consists of not less than three and not more than seven members to be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.
- (3) Every member of the commission holds office at pleasure and, notwithstanding the expiry of any term designated by the Lieutenant Governor in Council for the member, continues to hold office until his or her successor is appointed.
- (4) The authority shall:
- (a) pay to the members of the commission the remuneration determined by the Lieutenant Governor in Council; and
 - (b) reimburse members of the commission for travelling and living expenses at rates established by the Public Service Commission.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.21.

Commission panels

22(1) Any three or more members of the commission may sit as a panel of the commission and that panel may exercise or perform any powers or duties that the commission itself could exercise or perform.

(2) Any number of panels may sit concurrently.

(3) Two members of a panel constitute a quorum at any hearing conducted by a panel.

(4) A decision or action of a panel is the decision or action of the commission.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.22.

Officers of commission

23(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council shall designate one of the members of the commission to be the chairperson, one of the members to be the vice-chairperson and one of the members to be the secretary.

(2) Where the chairperson is absent or unable to act or the office of chairperson is vacant, the vice-chairperson may act in the place of the chairperson.

(3) All acts performed by the vice-chairperson pursuant to subsection (2) have the same force and effect as if performed by the chairperson.

(4) The secretary shall:

(a) keep a record of all proceedings conducted before the commission;

(b) have custody and care of all records and documents pertaining to or filed with the commission; and

(c) authenticate and cause to be published all orders made by the commission.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.23.

Certain interests prohibited

24 A member of the commission, as owner, part owner, partner, member of a syndicate, shareholder, agent or employee, whether for his or her own benefit or in a fiduciary capacity for another person, shall not:

(a) be directly or indirectly interested or engaged in any business or undertaking dealing in beverage alcohol;

(b) be any of the following:

(i) a registrant;

(ii) an on-reserve registrant;

(iii) a licensee;

(iv) an on-reserve charitable gaming licensee;

(v) a holder of a horse-racing licence;

- (vi) a holder of a horse-racing registration;
- (vii) a permittee;
- (viii) a director, officer or employee of a First Nation gaming licensing authority;
- (c) be directly or indirectly interested or engaged in any business or undertaking with a registrant, licensee or permittee or any business or undertaking that is associated with a registrant, licensee or permittee;
- (d) be directly or indirectly interested or engaged in any business or undertaking that is associated with the Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation;
- (e) be directly or indirectly interested or engaged in any business or undertaking dealing in:
 - (i) gaming supplies or services; or
 - (ii) non-gaming supplies or services that are used in the operation or conduct and management of a lottery scheme;
- (f) be directly or indirectly interested or engaged in any business or undertaking dealing in horse racing or racetracks; or
- (g) be directly or indirectly interested or engaged in any business or undertaking with a holder of a horse-racing licence or holder of a horse-racing registration or any business or undertaking that is associated with a holder of a horse-racing licence or holder of a horse-racing registration.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.24; 2002, c.42, s.7; 2003, c.15, s.4; 2014, ch.7, s.7.

Non-liability of members

25 No action lies or shall be instituted for any loss or damage suffered by any person by reason of anything in good faith done, caused, permitted or authorized to be done, attempted to be done or omitted to be done by any of the following pursuant to or in the exercise or supposed exercise of any power conferred by this Act, the regulations or the rules of horse racing or in the carrying out or supposed carrying out of any decision or order made pursuant to this Act, the regulations or the rules of horse racing or any duty or responsibility imposed by this Act, the regulations or the rules of horse racing:

- (a) the authority;
- (b) any member of the authority;
- (c) the commission;
- (d) any member of the commission;
- (e) any employee or other person acting under the instructions of the authority or the commission or pursuant to the authority of this Act, the regulations or the rules of horse racing.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.25.

DIVISION 5
Commission Hearings

Commission hearings

26(1) The commission shall hold a hearing in each of the following circumstances if the applicant applies for a review in accordance with section 30:

- (a) if the authority:
 - (i) imposes terms and conditions on a licence, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration that are unsatisfactory to the applicant; or
 - (ii) refuses an application for a licence, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration;
- (b) if a First Nation gaming licensing authority:
 - (i) imposes terms and conditions on an on-reserve certificate of registration that are unsatisfactory to the applicant; or
 - (ii) refuses an application for an on-reserve certificate of registration;
- (c) if a horse-racing licence is suspended or cancelled or a fine or other sanction is imposed on any person who contravened the rules of horse racing or acted in a manner that was prejudicial to the best interests of horse racing.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the commission shall hold an oral hearing in each of the following circumstances:

- (a) if the authority receives an application for a licence, horse-racing licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration, and, in the opinion of the authority, it is in the public interest to conduct an oral hearing;
- (b) if a First Nation gaming licensing authority receives an application for an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or for an on-reserve certificate of registration, and in the opinion of that First Nation gaming licensing authority, it is in the public interest to conduct an oral hearing;
- (c) if the authority receives a written objection pursuant to section 63;
- (d) if the authority proposes to suspend or cancel a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration, and the licensee, permittee or registrant, as the case may be, applies for a hearing in accordance with section 33;
- (e) if a First Nation gaming licensing authority proposes to suspend or cancel an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration, and the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant, as the case may be, applies for a hearing in accordance with section 34.1;
- (f) in accordance with section 37, if the authority has suspended a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration pursuant to that section;

- (g) in accordance with section 37.1, if a First Nation gaming licensing authority has suspended an on-reserve certificate of registration pursuant to that section;
 - (h) if the Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation, the Saskatchewan Indian Gaming Authority or an exhibition casino operator has forbidden any person from entering any casino in Saskatchewan for a specified period pursuant to clause 147.2(1)(b), and the person applies for a review in accordance with section 147.3;
 - (i) if a permittee or registrant applies for a hearing in accordance with section 39.1;
 - (j) if a First Nation gaming licensing authority assesses a penalty against an on-reserve registrant pursuant to section 147.07, and the on-reserve registrant applies for an oral hearing in accordance with that section.
- (3) Notwithstanding clause (2)(c), the commission shall not hold an oral hearing if a person has filed a written objection within the meaning of section 63 and the commission, after considering the grounds for the objection, determines, in its absolute discretion, that those grounds:
- (a) are frivolous or vexatious; or
 - (b) are prescribed in the regulations as grounds for which a hearing is not to be held.
- (4) The commission may rehear any application respecting:
- (a) the imposition of terms and conditions on, or the issuance, suspension or cancellation of, a licence, on-reserve charitable gaming licence, horse-racing licence, permit, certificate of registration or on-reserve certificate of registration; or
 - (b) the imposition of any sanction for contravention of the rules of horse racing or acting in a manner that is prejudicial to the best interests of horse racing.

2014, c.7, s.8.

Notice of hearing

- 27(1) If an oral hearing is to be held pursuant to this Act, the commission shall give the person respecting whom the oral hearing is to be held written notice of the oral hearing, indicating the time and place of the oral hearing.
- (2) For an oral hearing to be held pursuant to clause 26(2)(a) or (b), the notice given by the commission pursuant to subsection (1) must indicate the grounds on which the authority or the First Nation gaming licensing authority, as the case may be, considers the hearing to be advisable.
- (3) For a hearing to be held pursuant to subsection 26(1) or clause 26(2)(a), (b), (c) or (h), the notice may be sent by ordinary mail.

(4) For an oral hearing to be held pursuant to clause 26(2)(d), (e), (f), (g), (i) or (j), the notice must be served:

- (a) by personal service, by leaving a copy of the notice:
 - (i) with the individual to be served;
 - (ii) in the case of a partnership, with any one of the partners;
 - (iii) in the case of a corporation, with any officer or director of the corporation; or
 - (iv) in the case of an Indian band, with any member of the council of the Indian band;
- (b) by courier, by leaving a copy of the notice:
 - (i) with the individual to be served; or
 - (ii) in the case of service on a partnership, corporation or Indian band, with any manager or other adult person who, at the time of service, is in charge of the office or other business premises of the partnership, corporation or Indian band; or
- (c) by registered mail addressed to the address for service indicated by the applicant in the application for the review or hearing.

(5) A notice sent by ordinary or registered mail is deemed to have been delivered on the seventh day after the date of its mailing unless the person to whom the notice is sent establishes to the satisfaction of the commission that, through no fault of that person, the person did not receive the notice or received it at a later date.

2014, c.7, s.8.

Conduct of hearings

28(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the commission may regulate its own practice and procedures for the conduct of hearings.

(2) Oral hearings conducted pursuant to this Act are to be open to the public.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the commission may exclude the public from any part of an oral hearing where the commission is of the opinion that admitting the public would unduly violate the privacy of, result in financial loss or gain to or prejudice the competitive position of any person.

(4) The commission has all the powers conferred on a commission by sections 11, 15 and 25 of The Public Inquiries Act, 2013.

(5) Repealed. 2014, c.7, s.9.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.28; 2003, c.15, s.7; 2013, c.P-38.01, s.33; 2014, c.7, s.9.

Right to be heard29(1) Every person:

- (a) who is the subject of an oral hearing shall be given an opportunity to be heard and may be represented by counsel at that person's expense; and
 - (b) who, in the opinion of the commission, is an interested party may appear at an oral hearing but only with the permission of the commission.
- (2) Notwithstanding clause (1)(b) and subject to subsections (3) and 26(3), every person who has filed a written objection within the meaning of section 63 with the authority at least five days before the date of the oral hearing shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the oral hearing and to make written representations.
- (3) Where the commission holds an oral hearing pursuant to clause 26(2)(c), a person who has filed a written objection shall not be given the opportunity to be heard or make written representations where the commission, after considering the grounds for the objection, determines, in its absolute discretion, that those grounds:
- (a) are frivolous or vexatious; or
 - (b) are prescribed in the regulations as grounds for which a person is not to be given the opportunity to be heard or make written representations.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.29; 2000, c.36, s.6; 2014, c.7, s.10.

Applicant may apply for review30 Within 15 days after being notified of the decision, an applicant may apply for a review by the commission:

- (a) of a decision of the authority to:
 - (i) impose terms and conditions on a licence, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration;
 - (ii) refuse to issue a licence, horse-racing licence or permit or to grant a horse-racing registration, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration; or
 - (iii) suspend or cancel a horse-racing licence or impose a fine or other sanction on a person who has contravened the rules of horse racing or acted in a manner that is prejudicial to the best interests of horse racing; or
- (b) of a decision of a First Nation gaming licensing authority to:
 - (i) impose terms and conditions on an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration; or
 - (ii) refuse to issue an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration.

2003, c.15, s.8; 2014, c.7, s.11.

Applying for review

31(1) An application for a review pursuant to section 30, subsection 146(9), subsection 147.04(12) or section 147.3 is to be commenced by:

- (a) filing an application for review with the commission;
 - (b) where the applicant wishes an oral hearing, requesting a date and time for the oral hearing; and
 - (c) paying the fee prescribed in the regulations.
- (2) The application for review mentioned in subsection (1):
- (a) is to be substantially in the form prescribed in the regulations; and
 - (b) may be accompanied by any other information that the applicant wishes the commission to consider.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.31; 2003, c.15, s.9; 2005, c.3, s.8; 2014, c.7, s.12.

Conduct of review

32(1) On an application for review, the commission is not required to hold an oral hearing unless the applicant, at the time of filing the application for review, requests an oral hearing.

- (2) At a review conducted pursuant to this section, the commission may consider:
- (a) any information submitted by the applicant;
 - (b) any information considered by the authority or the First Nation gaming licensing authority, as the case may be, in making its decision; and
 - (c) where an oral hearing is held, any information given or representations made at the oral hearing.
- (3) If an applicant who requests an oral hearing fails to appear at the oral hearing without the prior approval of the commission, the commission may:
- (a) adjourn the hearing to a later date, in which case the commission shall provide notice of the new hearing date in accordance with section 27;
 - (b) consider the application on the basis of the material mentioned in clauses (2)(a) and (b); or
 - (c) dismiss the application.
- (4) If the commission proceeds pursuant to clause (3)(b) or (c), the applicant is deemed to have waived the right to an oral hearing.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.32; 2003, c.15, s.10; 2014, c.7, s.13.

Suspension or cancellation by the authority

33(1) Subject to section 37, if the authority intends to suspend or cancel a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration pursuant to clause 19(1)(f), (i) or (j), the authority, in accordance with this section, shall give written notice to the licensee, permittee or registrant, as the case may be, of the action the authority intends to take.

(2) The authority shall not suspend or cancel a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration more than three years after the date on which the grounds for the suspension or cancellation first came to the knowledge of the authority.

(3) If the authority intends to suspend a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration, the notice given by the authority pursuant to subsection (1) must:

- (a) set out the facts and circumstances that, in the authority's opinion, render the licensee, permittee or registrant liable to the suspension;
- (b) propose the period of suspension;
- (c) advise the licensee, permittee or registrant that it may make representations to the commission respecting:
 - (i) whether or not the suspension should be imposed; and
 - (ii) the period of suspension, if a suspension is imposed;
- (d) inform the licensee, permittee or registrant that, if it does not notify the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the authority may:
 - (i) suspend the licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration, as the case may be; and
 - (ii) determine the period of suspension; and
- (e) inform the licensee, permittee or registrant that, if it notifies the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the commission may, either following a hearing conducted pursuant to this section or if the licensee, permittee or registrant fails, without the prior approval of the commission, to appear at the hearing:
 - (i) suspend the licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration, as the case may be; and
 - (ii) determine the period of suspension.

(4) If the authority intends to cancel a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration, the notice given by the authority pursuant to subsection (1) must:

- (a) set out the facts and circumstances that, in the authority's opinion, render the licensee, permittee or registrant liable to the cancellation;
- (b) advise the licensee, permittee or registrant that it may make representations to the commission respecting whether or not the licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration should be cancelled; and

- (c) inform the licensee, permittee or registrant that:
 - (i) if it does not notify the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the authority may cancel the licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration, as the case may be; and
 - (ii) if it notifies the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the commission may, either following a hearing conducted pursuant to this section or if the permittee, licensee or registrant fails, without the prior approval of the commission, to appear at the hearing, cancel the licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration, as the case may be.
- (5) A licensee, permittee or registrant that receives a notice from the authority pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) may apply, within 15 days after it is served with the notice, for a review by the commission of the intended action of the authority, by:
 - (a) filing an application for an oral hearing with the commission; and
 - (b) paying the fee prescribed in the regulations.
- (6) The application mentioned in subsection (5):
 - (a) is to be substantially in the form prescribed in the regulations; and
 - (b) may be accompanied by any other information that the applicant wishes the commission to consider.
- (7) At an oral hearing conducted pursuant to this section, the commission may consider:
 - (a) any information submitted by the applicant;
 - (b) any information considered by the authority in making its decision; and
 - (c) any information given or representations made at the oral hearing.
- (8) If an applicant, without the prior approval of the commission, fails to appear at an oral hearing conducted pursuant to this section, the commission may:
 - (a) adjourn the hearing to a later date, in which case the commission shall provide notice of the new hearing date in accordance with section 27;
 - (b) consider the application on the basis of the material mentioned in clauses 32(2)(a) and (b); or
 - (c) dismiss the application.
- (9) If the commission proceeds pursuant to clause (8)(b) or (c), the applicant is deemed to have waived the right to an oral hearing.
- (10) At an oral hearing conducted pursuant to this section, the commission may suspend or cancel a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration, as the case may be, if the commission is satisfied that:
 - (a) the licensee, permittee or registrant has contravened:
 - (i) this Act or the regulations;

- (ii) any term or condition to which the licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration is subject; or
 - (iii) an order of the authority or the commission; or
- (b) it is not in the public interest that the licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration remain in effect.
- (11) If the authority has given written notice to the licensee, permittee or registrant in accordance with subsection (3) or (4) and the licensee, permittee or registrant does not apply for an oral hearing pursuant to subsection (5), the authority may suspend or cancel the licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration, as the case may be, in accordance with the terms of the notice.

Suspension or cancellation by First Nation gaming licensing authority

34.1(1) Subject to section 37.1, if a First Nation gaming licensing authority intends to suspend or cancel an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or an on-reserve certificate of registration pursuant to clause 147.01(1)(g) or (h), the First Nation gaming licensing authority, in accordance with this section, shall give written notice to the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant, as the case may be, of the action the First Nation gaming licensing authority intends to take.

(2) A First Nation gaming licensing authority shall not suspend or cancel an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or an on-reserve certificate of registration more than three years after the date on which the grounds for the suspension or cancellation first came to the knowledge of the First Nation gaming licensing authority.

(3) If a First Nation gaming licensing authority intends to suspend an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or an on-reserve certificate of registration, the notice given by the First Nation gaming licensing authority pursuant to subsection (1) must:

- (a) set out the facts and circumstances that, in the First Nation gaming licensing authority's opinion, render the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant liable to the suspension;
- (b) propose the period of suspension;
- (c) advise the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant that it may make representations to the commission respecting:
 - (i) whether or not the suspension should be imposed; and
 - (ii) the period of suspension, if a suspension is imposed;

- (d) inform the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant that, if it does not notify the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the First Nation gaming licensing authority may:
 - (i) suspend the on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration, as the case may be; and
 - (ii) determine the period of suspension; and
 - (e) inform the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant that, if it notifies the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the commission may, either following a hearing conducted pursuant to this section or if the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant fails, without the prior approval of the commission, to appear at the hearing:
 - (i) suspend the on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration, as the case may be; and
 - (ii) determine the period of suspension.
- (4) If the First Nation gaming licensing authority intends to cancel an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or an on-reserve certificate of registration, the notice given by the First Nation gaming licensing authority pursuant to subsection (1) must:
- (a) set out the facts and circumstances that, in the First Nation gaming licensing authority's opinion, render the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant liable to the cancellation;
 - (b) advise the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant that it may make representations to the commission respecting whether or not the on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration should be cancelled; and
 - (c) inform the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant that:
 - (i) if it does not notify the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the First Nation gaming licensing authority may cancel the on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration, as the case may be; and
 - (ii) if it notifies the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the commission may, either following a hearing conducted pursuant to this section or if the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant fails, without the prior approval of the commission, to appear at the hearing, cancel the on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration, as the case may be.

- (5) An on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant that receives a notice from a First Nation gaming licensing authority pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) may apply, within 15 days after it is served with the notice, for a review by the commission of the intended action of the First Nation Gaming licensing authority, by:
- (a) filing an application for an oral hearing with the commission; and
 - (b) paying the fee prescribed in the regulations.
- (6) The application mentioned in subsection (5):
- (a) is to be substantially in the form prescribed in the regulations; and
 - (b) may be accompanied by any other information that the applicant wishes the commission to consider.
- (7) At an oral hearing conducted pursuant to this section, the commission may consider:
- (a) any information submitted by the applicant;
 - (b) any information considered by the First Nation gaming licensing authority in making its decision; and
 - (c) any information given or representations made at the oral hearing.
- (8) If an applicant, without the prior approval of the commission, fails to appear at an oral hearing conducted pursuant to this section, the commission may:
- (a) adjourn the hearing to a later date, in which case the commission shall provide notice of the new hearing date in accordance with section 27;
 - (b) consider the application on the basis of the material mentioned in clauses 32(2)(a) and (b); or
 - (c) dismiss the application.
- (9) If the commission proceeds pursuant to clause (8)(b) or (c), the applicant is deemed to have waived the right to an oral hearing.
- (10) At an oral hearing conducted pursuant to this section, the commission may suspend or cancel an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or an on-reserve certificate of registration, as the case may be, if the commission is satisfied that:
- (a) the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant has contravened:
 - (i) this Act or the regulations;
 - (ii) any term or condition to which the on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration is subject; or
 - (iii) an order of the commission or of the First Nation gaming licensing authority that issued the on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration; or
 - (b) it is not in the public interest that the on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration remain in effect.

(11) If the First Nation gaming licensing authority has given written notice to the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant in accordance with subsection (3) or (4) and the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant does not apply for an oral hearing pursuant to subsection (5), the First Nation gaming licensing authority may suspend or cancel the on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration, as the case may be, in accordance with the terms of the notice.

34.2 Repealed. 2014, c.7, s.15.

Powers of commission

35(1) On holding a hearing pursuant to clause 26(1)(a) or (c) or clause 26(2)(a), (c), (d), (f) or (i) or subsection 26(2), the commission may:

- (a) direct the authority to:
 - (i) issue, on any terms that the commission considers appropriate, a licence, horse-racing licence or permit; or
 - (ii) grant, on any terms that the commission considers appropriate, a certificate of registration, reviewable endorsement or horse-racing registration;
- (b) direct the authority to refuse:
 - (i) to issue a licence, horse-racing licence or permit; or
 - (ii) to grant a certificate of registration, reviewable endorsement or horse-racing registration;
- (c) direct the authority to suspend a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration for any period the commission considers appropriate;
- (d) direct a refund of any fees paid for:
 - (i) a review pursuant to section 31; or
 - (ii) a hearing pursuant to section 33;
- (e) direct the authority to revoke the suspension of a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration on those terms that the commission considers appropriate;
- (f) direct the authority to cancel a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration;
- (g) direct the authority to renew a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration for any period the commission considers appropriate;
- (h) direct the authority to amend, vary or repeal and substitute any terms imposed or impose new terms on a licence, horse-racing licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration;

- (i) confirm the decision to cancel or suspend a horse-racing licence or to impose a fine or other sanction on a person who has contravened the rules of horse racing or acted in a manner that is prejudicial to the best interests of horse racing, or substitute the commission's own decision;
 - (j) on a rehearing pursuant to subsection 26(2), review, rescind, change, alter or vary any order made by the commission; or
 - (k) in the case of a hearing pursuant to section 39.1:
 - (i) assess a penalty in accordance with section 39.1 up to the amount proposed in the written notice provided pursuant to subsection 39.1(3) or in any other amount subject to the limits prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (ii) at the time the commission assesses a penalty pursuant to subclause (i):
 - (A) determine the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full; and
 - (B) order that the permit or certificate of registration, as the case may be, be suspended for the period proposed in the written notice provided pursuant to subsection 39.1(3) or for any period that the commission considers appropriate if the permittee or registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the date determined pursuant to paragraph (A).
- (2) On holding a hearing pursuant to clause 26(1)(b) or clause 26(2)(b), (e), (g), (h) or (j) respecting an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or an on-reserve certificate of registration, the commission may:
- (a) direct the First Nation gaming licensing authority to do any of the following:
 - (i) issue, on those terms and conditions that the commission considers appropriate, an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration;
 - (ii) refuse to issue an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration;
 - (iii) suspend an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration for any period that the commission considers appropriate;
 - (iv) revoke the suspension of an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration, on those terms and conditions that the commission considers appropriate;
 - (v) cancel an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or an on-reserve certificate of registration;

- (vi) renew an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration for any period that the commission considers appropriate;
- (vii) amend, vary, repeal and substitute any terms and conditions imposed, or impose any new terms and conditions, on an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration; and
- (b) direct a refund of any fees paid for:
 - (i) a review pursuant to section 31; or
 - (ii) a hearing pursuant to section 34.1.
- (3) Repealed. 2014, c.7, s.16.
- (4) If the commission revokes a decision to deny a person access to a casino pursuant to clause 147.2(1)(b), or varies the period during which a person is forbidden to enter a casino, the commission shall notify the following of the decision:
 - (a) the Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation;
 - (b) the Saskatchewan Indian Gaming Authority;
 - (c) all exhibition casino operators operating a casino in Saskatchewan.

2008, c.8, s.5; 2014, c.7, s.16.

Finality of decision

36 Subject to clause 35(1)(j), every decision or order of the commission is final, and no order, decision or proceeding of the commission shall be questioned or reviewed, restrained or removed by prohibition, injunction, certiorari, mandamus or any other process or proceeding in any court.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.36.

Prohibited period for applying for new licence, etc., after cancellation

36.1 If a licence, certificate of registration or on-reserve certificate of registration is cancelled by the authority or a First Nation gaming licensing authority or pursuant to a direction of the commission:

- (a) no licence, certificate of registration or on-reserve certificate of registration, as the case may be, shall be issued to the person who was named as the licensee, registrant or on-reserve registrant, as the case may be, for at least one year; and
- (b) if another licence, certificate of registration or on-reserve certificate of registration is issued to that person and is cancelled, no licence, certificate of registration or on-reserve certificate of registration shall be issued to that person after that time.

2014, c.7, s.17.

Immediate suspension

37(1) The authority, by order, may suspend a licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration for a period not exceeding seven days without giving notice to the licensee, permittee or registrant in accordance with subsection 33(1) where it considers the immediate suspension to be necessary in the public interest.

- (2) The authority shall serve on the licensee, permittee or registrant:
 - (a) a copy of the order of suspension; and
 - (b) a notice fixing a time and place for an oral hearing by the commission pursuant to clause 26(2)(f) to determine whether the suspension should be extended, or whether the licence, permit, reviewable endorsement or certificate of registration should be cancelled.
- (3) An order for suspension takes effect immediately on being served on the licensee, permittee or registrant.
- (4) The time fixed for the oral hearing in the notice is to be prior to the expiration of the order for suspension.
- (5) The commission may adjourn an oral hearing and may extend the order for suspension to a date not later than the date to which the oral hearing has been adjourned.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.37; 2000, c.36, s.11; 2014, c.7, s.18.

Immediate suspension by First Nation gaming licensing authority

37.1(1) A First Nation gaming licensing authority, by order, may suspend an on-reserve charitable gaming licence or an on-reserve certificate of registration for a period not exceeding seven days without giving notice to the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant in accordance with section 34.1 if it considers the immediate suspension to be necessary in the public interest.

- (2) The First Nation gaming licensing authority shall serve on the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant:
 - (a) a copy of the order of suspension; and
 - (b) a notice fixing a time and place for an oral hearing by the commission pursuant to clause 26(2)(g) to determine whether the suspension should be extended, or whether the on-reserve charitable gaming licence or on-reserve certificate of registration should be cancelled.
- (3) An order for suspension takes effect immediately on being served on the on-reserve charitable gaming licensee or on-reserve registrant, as the case may be.
- (4) The time fixed for the oral hearing in the notice is to be before the expiration of the order for suspension.
- (5) The commission may adjourn an oral hearing and may extend the order for suspension to a date not later than the date to which the oral hearing has been adjourned.

2014, c.7, s.19.

DIVISION 6
General Provisions Respecting Permits, Licences, Etc.

Terms of licence, etc.

38 Every licence, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration, permit, endorsement and certificate of registration is subject to all the terms imposed by this Act, the regulations, the rules of horse racing, the authority and the commission.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.38; 2000, c.36, s.12.

Compliance with terms

39 No holder of a licence, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration, permit or certificate of registration shall fail to comply with any terms imposed on the licence, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration, permit, endorsement or certificate of registration by this Act, the regulations, the rules of horse racing, the authority and the commission.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.39; 2000, c.36, s.13.

Administrative penalties

39.1(1) If a permittee or registrant fails to comply with any term or condition imposed on a permit, endorsement or certificate of registration by this Act, the regulations, the authority or the commission, the authority or the commission may assess a penalty, within the limits prescribed in the regulations, of not more than $10,000 against the permittee or registrant in accordance with this section.

(2) No penalty is to be assessed by the authority or the commission more than three years after the date on which the failure to comply with any term or condition mentioned in subsection (1) first came to the knowledge of the authority.

(3) Before assessing a penalty against a permittee or registrant pursuant to subsection (1), the authority shall provide to the permittee or registrant a written notice:

- (a) setting out the facts and circumstances that, in the authority's opinion, render the permittee or registrant liable to the penalty;
- (b) proposing:
 - (i) the amount of the penalty;
 - (ii) the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full; and
 - (iii) if applicable, the period of suspension if the permittee or registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date;
- (c) advising the permittee or registrant that it may make representations to the commission respecting:
 - (i) whether or not a penalty should be assessed;
 - (ii) the amount of the penalty;
 - (iii) the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full;

- (iv) whether or not the permit or certificate of registration, as the case may be, should be suspended if the permittee or registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date; and
 - (v) if the permit or certificate of registration is suspended for the permittee's or registrant's failure to pay the penalty in full by the specified date, the period of suspension;
- (d) informing the permittee or registrant that, if it does not notify the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the authority may:
 - (i) assess a penalty up to the amount proposed in the notice;
 - (ii) determine the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full; and
 - (iii) order that the permit or certificate of registration, as the case may be, will be suspended for a period up to that proposed in the notice if the permittee or registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date; and
- (e) informing the permittee or registrant that, if it notifies the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the commission may, either following a hearing conducted pursuant to this section or if the permittee or registrant fails, without the prior approval of the commission, to appear at the hearing:
 - (i) assess a penalty up to the amount proposed in the notice or in any other amount within the limits prescribed in the regulations;
 - (ii) determine the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full; and
 - (iii) order that the permit or certificate of registration, as the case may be, will be suspended for a period up to that proposed in the notice if the permittee or registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date.
- (4) A permittee or registrant who receives a written notice pursuant to subsection (3) may, within 15 days after receiving the written notice, apply for an oral hearing with the commission by:
 - (a) filing an application with the commission; and
 - (b) paying the fee prescribed in the regulations.
- (5) The application for a hearing mentioned in subsection (4):
 - (a) is to be substantially in the form prescribed in the regulations; and
 - (b) may be accompanied by any other information that the applicant wishes the commission to consider.
- (6) Subsection 32(2) applies, with any necessary modification, to a hearing conducted pursuant to this section.

- (7) If an applicant who requests an oral hearing pursuant to this section fails to appear at the oral hearing without the prior approval of the commission, subsections 32(3) and (4) apply, with any necessary modification.
- (8) If the authority has provided written notice to the permittee or registrant in accordance with subsection (3) and the permittee or registrant does not apply for an oral hearing pursuant to subsection (4), the authority may:
- (a) assess a penalty up to the amount proposed in the written notice provided pursuant to subsection (3);
 - (b) determine the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full; and
 - (c) order that the permit or certificate of registration, as the case may be, will be suspended for a period up to that proposed in the written notice provided pursuant to subsection (3) if the permittee or registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date.
- (9) If the authority assesses a penalty pursuant to subsection (8), the authority shall provide to the permittee or registrant a written notice specifying:
- (a) the amount of the penalty;
 - (b) the date by which the penalty must be paid in full; and
 - (c) the period of suspension if the permittee or registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date.
- (10) If the commission assesses a penalty following a hearing conducted pursuant to this section or in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (7), the authority shall provide to the permittee or registrant a written notice specifying:
- (a) the amount of the penalty;
 - (b) the date by which the penalty must be paid in full; and
 - (c) the period of suspension if the permittee or registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date.
- (11) A written notice pursuant to subsection (3), (9) or (10) is to be served in accordance with subsection 27(4).
- (12) A penalty assessed pursuant to this section is a debt due to and recoverable by the Crown and may be recovered in any manner authorized by The Financial Administration Act, 1993.
- (13) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act or the regulations, a permittee or registrant has no right to a hearing, review or appeal if the authority or the commission suspends a permit or certificate of registration for the failure by the permittee or registrant to pay a penalty in full by a date determined by the authority or the commission in accordance with this section.

Effective date of licence, etc.

40 A licence, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration, permit or certificate of registration becomes effective on the date stated in the licence, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration, permit or certificate of registration as the effective date, or if no effective date is stated, on the date of issue of the licence, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration, permit or certificate of registration.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.40.

Fees

41(1) Every application for a licence, permit, endorsement, transfer of a permit or certificate of registration is to be accompanied by the fee prescribed in the regulations.

(2) Every licensee, permittee or registrant shall pay, in addition to the fee prescribed in the regulations, any of the following amounts that may be prescribed in the regulations:

- (a) any further amount on the issuance of the licence or permit or the granting of the endorsement, transfer of a permit certificate of registration;
- (b) any periodic amount during the duration of the licence, permit, endorsement or certificate of registration.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.41; 2000, c.36, s.15; 2002, c.42, s.12.

Licence and certificate of registration not transferable

42(1) Every licence, horse-racing licence, permit and certificate of registration is to be issued in the name of the applicant.

(2) No certificate of registration, licence or horse-racing licence is transferable.

(3) Subject to sections 68 to 69.1 and the regulations:

- (a) no permit is transferable to any other person or any other premises; and
- (b) no permittee shall allow any other person to use the permit.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.42; 2014, c.7, s.21.

Licence, etc., property of authority

43 Every licence, horse-racing licence, permit and certificate of registration is the property of the authority, and if a licence, horse-racing licence, permit or certificate of registration is cancelled or suspended, the licensee, holder of the horse-racing licence, permittee or registrant shall return it to the authority immediately.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.43.

Investigations

44 The authority may make investigations through persons appointed by the authority pursuant to section 10 for the purpose of doing all or any of the following:

- (a) determining whether or not a licence, horse-racing licence or permit should be issued or a certificate of registration, endorsement or horse-racing registration should be granted;
- (b) determining whether or not a licence, horse-racing licence, horse-racing registration, permit, endorsement or certificate of registration should be suspended or cancelled;
- (c) inspecting alterations, renovations or the reconstruction of permitted premises where the authority has approved those alterations or renovations or that reconstruction;
- (d) inspecting permitted premises or premises for which a licence, permit or endorsement has been granted for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not this Act, the regulations or the terms of the licence, permit or endorsement are being complied with;
- (e) inspecting casinos established pursuant to The Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation Act to determine whether or not this Act and the regulations are being complied with;
- (f) administering and enforcing this Act, the regulations and the rules of horse racing.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.44; 2000, c.36, s.16.

Access to premises, etc.

45(1) Every registrant, holder of a horse-racing licence, holder of a horse-racing registration, permittee and licensee and the Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation shall allow an officer access to his, her or its premises, books, records or other documents at all reasonable times for the purpose of making any inspection that the authority or the officer considers necessary.

(2) Where any book, record or other document has been examined pursuant to subsection (1), the officer may make copies of the book, record or other document.

(3) A document certified to be a copy made pursuant to this section is admissible in evidence, without proof of the office or signature of the person appearing to have certified the document, and has the same probative force as the original document.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.45; 2008, c.8, s.5.

Fees chargeable to Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation

46 Subject to the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the authority may charge the Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation any reasonable fees required to reimburse the authority for the costs the authority has incurred in exercising its powers and fulfilling its responsibilities pursuant to this Act respecting the Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.46.

PART III
Beverage Alcohol Permits
DIVISION 1
Issuance and Terms

Authority may issue permits

47 The authority may:

- (a) issue permits, in accordance with the regulations, for the purchase, sale, manufacture, transport, import, export, consumption and possession of beverage alcohol;
- (b) require any additional information from an applicant for a permit, endorsement or transfer of a permit in any form determined by the authority;
- (c) set any additional terms for individual permits or endorsements or classes of permits or endorsements that are allowed by the regulations; and
- (d) after issuing, granting or renewing a permit or endorsement:
 - (i) amend or repeal any term or condition imposed by the authority on the permit or endorsement pursuant to clause (c);
 - (ii) impose any new terms and conditions on the permit or endorsement that are permitted by the regulations; and
 - (iii) at the request of the permittee, temporarily suspend the permittee's permit as it applies to all or any part of the permitted premises.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.47; 2000, c.36, s.17; 2002, c.42, s.13; 2008, c.8, s.7.

Franchise may issue special occasion permits

47.1 A franchise may issue special occasion permits if authorized to do so pursuant to an agreement entered into by the authority and the franchisee.

2014, c.7, s.23.

Where prohibited

48(1) Subject to subsection (2) and section 50, the authority shall not consider any application for any type of permit, other than a permit allowing the sale and consumption of beverage alcohol at a special occasion, for any premises located in a municipality that has passed a bylaw prohibiting the operation of permitted premises in that municipality pursuant to section 49.

(2) The authority, on any terms it considers advisable, may issue or renew a permit respecting any premises situated in:

- (a) the Northern Saskatchewan Administration District;
- (b) a provincial park established pursuant to The Parks Act or a regional park established or continued pursuant to The Regional Parks Act, 2013;
- (c) an area that, in the opinion of the authority, is a summer or winter resort area;
- (d) a national park of Canada, subject to any regulations made pursuant to the National Parks Act (Canada); or
- (e) a reserve.

Municipal bylaws

49(1) If the authority receives an application for a permit respecting premises located in a municipality in which, for at least one year, there have been no permitted premises, stores or franchises, and a bylaw has not been adopted in accordance with subsection (2), the authority shall:

- (a) give written notice to the municipality that it has received the application; and
- (b) direct the applicant to publish a notice in accordance with section 62 with respect to the application.

(2) Following the notice, the council of the municipality may elect to adopt a bylaw prohibiting the operation of permitted premises in the municipality or may be required to do so pursuant to:

- (a) The Municipalities Act in the case of a municipality other than a city or northern municipality.
- (b) Repealed. 2005, c.21, s.2.
- (c) The Northern Municipalities Act, 2010 in the case of a northern municipality;
- (d) The Cities Act in the case of a city that is incorporated or continued pursuant to that Act.

(3) Where the council of the municipality elects or is required to refer the bylaw to a vote of electors or voters, as the case may be, the council shall give notice of that election or requirement to the authority.

(4) Repealed. 2005, c.21, s.2.

(5) Where the authority receives notice pursuant to subsection (3), it shall not issue any permits in the municipality until it has determined that the bylaw was not adopted.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.49; 2002, c.27, s.2; 2005, c.21, s.2; 2008, c.8, s.8; 2010, c.25, s.2; 2013, c.2, s.4.

Public transportation

50(1) Notwithstanding section 49, the authority may issue permits to persons engaged in the business of providing public transportation respecting any railway car, limousine, airplane, bus, ship or vessel that does not operate solely within one municipality.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a permit allowing the sale and consumption of beverage alcohol at a special occasion.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.50.

Types of permitted premises

51 Subject to the other provisions of this Act and the regulations, the authority may issue permits for the sale of beverage alcohol respecting any place, premises, railway car, limousine, airplane, bus, ship or vessel approved by the authority.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.51.

53 The Lieutenant Governor in Council may prescribe the maximum number of permits of each class of permits.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.53.

Reduction in number of permits

54 Subject to this Act and the regulations, where a reduction in the number of permits is made pursuant to section 53, all permits in force on the day of reduction continue and may be renewed by the authority.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.54.

55 Repealed. 2013, c.2, s.5.

DIVISION 2 Applications

Suitability of premises

56(1) No applicant or permittee is entitled to obtain or keep a permit unless:

- (a) the applicant or the permittee, as the case may be, ensures that the premises to which the application or permit relates conform to applicable building, fire, health and safety standards; and
 - (b) in the authority's opinion, the premises mentioned in clause (a) are being and will be managed in accordance with this Act and the regulations.
- (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the authority has no duty to inspect or to require the inspection of permitted premises to ensure compliance with this Act or any other Act.
- (3) No action or other proceeding lies or shall be commenced against the authority, any officer or employee of the authority, the minister or the Crown in right of Saskatchewan for any loss or damage suffered by a person as a result of an applicant's or permittee's failure to ensure that the premises to which the application or permit relates conform to applicable building, fire, health and safety standards.

2002, c.42, s.14; 2013, c.2, s.6.

Application for permit

57(1) An application for a permit must be made in the manner prescribed in the regulations.

- (2) Before a permit is issued, the authority may require the applicant to pay any liquor consumption tax not paid by the preceding permittee of the premises that are the subject of the application.

2014, c.7, s.25.

58 Repealed. 2014, c.7, s.25.

Qualifications of applicant

59 A permit may be issued by the authority to a person who is not a minor.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.59.

Evidence of good character

59.1(1) The authority shall not issue a permit to an applicant if the authority has evidence that the authority considers credible and reliable that the applicant is not of good character.

- (2) In determining whether an applicant is or is not of good character, the authority may consider the following:

- (a) any evidence the authority considers relevant respecting the applicant's reputation, past conduct, integrity, financial history or competence;
- (b) evidence the authority considers relevant respecting the character of the applicant's employees and associates;

- (c) if the applicant is a corporation or partnership, any evidence that the authority considers relevant respecting the character of any person who is a shareholder, partner, officer or director of the applicant;
- (c.1) if the applicant is an Indian band, any evidence that the authority considers relevant respecting the character of any person who is a member of the council of the Indian band;
- (d) any other evidence that the authority considers relevant.

2008, c.8, s.10; 2014, c.7, s.26.

Qualifications of other applicants

60(1) The authority may issue a permit to an applicant who otherwise complies with the requirements of this Act and the regulations and is:

- (a) a partnership, if each partner is qualified pursuant to:
 - (i) sections 59 and 59.1; or
 - (ii) clause (b) or (c);
- (b) a corporation without share capital:
 - (i) that is incorporated, established or continued by or pursuant to an Act or an Act of the Parliament of Canada;
 - (ii) that is lawfully authorized to carry on business in Saskatchewan;
 - (iii) that is not restricted from carrying on the business with respect to which the application is made; and
 - (iv) whose directors, officers, agents and employees who have responsibility for the operation or management of the corporation are qualified pursuant to sections 59 and 59.1;
- (c) a corporation:
 - (i) that is incorporated, established or continued by or pursuant to an Act or an Act of the Parliament of Canada;
 - (ii) that is lawfully authorized to carry on business in Saskatchewan;
 - (iii) that is not restricted from carrying on the business with respect to which the application is made;
 - (iv) with respect to which 20% or more of the issued voting or non-voting shares of the corporation are owned, directly or indirectly, by:
 - (A) an individual who is qualified pursuant to sections 59 and 59.1;
 - (B) a corporation in which any person who owns, directly or indirectly, 20% or more of the issued voting or non-voting shares of that corporation is qualified pursuant to sections 59 and 59.1; or

- (C) a partnership in which each partner is qualified pursuant to:
 - (I) sections 59 and 59.1; or
 - (II) this clause or clause (b); and
 - (v) whose directors, officers, agents and employees who have responsibility for the operation or management of the corporation are qualified pursuant to sections 59 and 59.1;
 - (d) a municipality or regional park authority, if the premises to which the application relates are owned by that municipality or regional park authority;
 - (e) a person who operates a commercial air service, if the aircraft to which the application relates are owned or operated by that commercial air service;
 - (f) a railway corporation, if the trains to which the application relates are owned or operated by that railway corporation; or
 - (g) an Indian band whose members of council, and whose officers, agents and employees who have responsibility for the operation or management of the Indian band, are qualified pursuant to sections 59 and 59.1.
- (2) Subclause (1)(c)(iv) does not apply to a corporation with respect to which the shares are traded on a public exchange.

2002, c.42, s.17; 2014, c.7, s.27.

Certain interests prohibited

61(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (5), no permit shall be issued respecting any premises:

- (a) in which a manufacturer, or any of its directors, officers, shareholders, employees or agents has:
 - (i) acquired any direct, indirect or contingent interest in the ownership or management of the business to which the application relates or in its property, chattels or equipment; or
 - (ii) assisted the applicant financially in any way; and
 - (b) where, in the opinion of the authority, the involvement of the manufacturer would cause the permittee to unduly discourage the sale or consumption of the products of other manufacturers.
- (2) This section does not apply to trains or premises owned and operated by a railway company incorporated prior to January 2, 1989.
- (3) This section does not apply to any brew pub, cottage winery, micro brewery or micro distillery, all as defined in the regulations, for which a manufacturer permit has been issued.
- (4) Subclause (1)(a)(ii) and clause (1)(b) do not apply to special use permits that are prescribed in the regulations.
- (5) No permittee shall use a manufacturer's name or logo in the name of the permittee's permitted premises.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.61; 2005, c.3, s.12; 2008, c.8, s.11; 2014, c.7, s.28.

Special occasion permits

61.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, subsection 57(1) and sections 59.1, 60, 61, 61.2 and 62 do not apply to an application for a permit allowing:

- (a) the service of beverage alcohol at a special occasion; or
- (b) the sale and service of beverage alcohol at a special occasion.

2002, c.42, s.18; 2014, c.7, s.29.

Continuing qualification

61.2 No permittee shall fail to comply, for the term of the permittee's permit, with:

- (a) the conditions set out in sections 59, 59.1, 60 and 61; or
- (b) the statements and undertakings made by the permittee in the application for the permit.

2014, c.7, s.30.

DIVISION 3 Application Hearings

Publication of notice

62(1) When an application for a permit or reviewable endorsement is received by the authority, the applicant shall publish a notice in a form acceptable to the authority that written objections to the granting of a permit or reviewable endorsement may be filed with the authority not more than two weeks from the date of publication of the notice.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to:

- (a) a permit allowing the service of beverage alcohol at a special occasion;
- (b) a permit allowing the sale and service of beverage alcohol at a special occasion;
 - (b.1) a permit issued to a u-brew or u-vin operation;
 - (b.2) a permit allowing a catering business to serve and sell beverage alcohol at catered events;
- (c) an application for an endorsement other than a reviewable endorsement;
- (d) an application to transfer a permit and any existing endorsement to the permit, including a reviewable endorsement; or
- (e) an application to renew a permit or reviewable endorsement.

- (3) Where an applicant applies for a permit, the notice is to be published:
- (a) at least once each week for two successive weeks in a daily or weekly newspaper published:
 - (i) in the municipality in which the proposed permitted premises are to be situated; or
 - (ii) in Saskatchewan and circulating in the municipality in which the proposed permitted premises are to be situated, if no daily or weekly newspaper is published in that municipality; or
 - (b) in any other manner prescribed in the regulations.
- (4) The applicant shall provide the authority with a copy of the newspaper containing the notice.
- (5) Where an applicant applies for a reviewable endorsement, the notice is to be published at least once each week for two successive weeks in a daily or weekly newspaper published:
- (a) in the municipality in which the premises or proposed premises respecting the reviewable endorsement are or are proposed to be situated; or
 - (b) in Saskatchewan and circulating in the municipality in which the premises or proposed premises respecting the reviewable endorsement are or are proposed to be situated, if no daily or weekly newspaper is published in that municipality.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.62; 2000, c.36, s.18; 2002, c.42, s.19; 2008, c.8, s.12; 2013, c.2, s.7.

Filing of objections

- 63(1) Every person who has filed a written objection with the authority shall state, in clear detail, the grounds for the objection in the written objection.
- (2) Where a written objection is filed, the authority shall not issue a permit or reviewable endorsement to the applicant except in accordance with an order of the commission.
- (3) Subject to subsection (6), the commission shall give every applicant for a permit or reviewable endorsement, and every person who files a written objection to the granting of a permit or reviewable endorsement, written notice of:
- (a) the time and place of the hearing at which the application will be considered; and
 - (b) the grounds for the objection.
- (4) The notice is to be sent by ordinary mail.

(5) The onus of establishing that the commission should not issue a permit or grant a reviewable endorsement is on the person who files a written objection with the authority.

(6) No written notice pursuant to subsection (3) shall be given by the commission to a person who files a written objection where the commission, after considering the grounds for the objection, determines, in its absolute discretion, that those grounds:

- (a) are frivolous or vexatious; or
- (b) are prescribed in the regulations as grounds for which no written notice is to be given.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.63; 2000, c.36, s.19; 2014, c.7, s.31.

Restriction on cancellation

64 When a permit has been cancelled:

- (a) no permit shall be issued for at least one year to the person named as the holder of the permit;
- (b) no permit shall be issued respecting the premises described in the permit for at least one month; and
- (c) if another permit is issued to that person and is cancelled, no permit shall be issued to that person after that time.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.64.

Return of beverage alcohol

65(1) Where a permit is cancelled, all beverage alcohol in the possession of a permittee shall be delivered to the authority by the permittee, and the authority shall:

- (a) assess the condition of the beverage alcohol;
- (b) repurchase at current prices the beverage alcohol found by the authority to be in good condition and capable of being sold by the authority; and
- (c) make any orders respecting the disposal of beverage alcohol not repurchased that the authority, in its discretion, considers appropriate.

(2) The authority may assess a fee for restocking beverage alcohol repurchased by it pursuant to subsection (1).

(3) When a permit expires and is not renewed, all beverage alcohol in the possession of the permittee shall be delivered to the authority and the provisions of subsection (1) respecting the repurchase and disposition apply.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.65.

When permit suspended

66(1) When a permit is suspended, all beverage alcohol in the possession of a permittee shall immediately be sealed by the permittee in a manner satisfactory to the authority at the expense and risk of the permittee, to be kept on the premises or delivered to the authority, as the authority may direct.

(2) When suspension of a permit is lifted, beverage alcohol delivered to the authority pursuant to subsection (1) shall be returned to the permittee.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.66.

DIVISION 4
Specific Privileges

Authority of permittee

67 A permittee may purchase beverage alcohol from the authority and keep beverage alcohol and, if authorized by the regulations, may sell beverage alcohol to persons who are not minors, subject to the restrictions and specifications in this Act and the regulations.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.67.

DIVISION 5
Special Cases

If premises destroyed

68 Subject to this Act and the regulations, in the event of the destruction of permitted premises, the permit continues in effect for the premises constructed on the site of the destroyed premises or on any other site within the same municipality approved by the authority and occupied by the original permittee.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.68.

If permittee dies

69(1) Subject to this Act and the regulations, in the event of the death of a permittee who is an individual, a permit continues in force until it expires.

(2) Where a permittee who is an individual dies, the trustee, executor or administrator responsible for the estate of the deceased permittee, or a manager of the premises approved by the authority, enjoys all of the rights and is subject to all of the liabilities that would have pertained to the deceased permittee if the permittee had not died.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.69.

69.1(1) In the circumstances prescribed in the regulations and subject to this section, a person may apply for a transfer of a permit and the authority may grant a transfer of that permit.

(2) Subject to the regulations, section 57 applies, with any necessary modification, to an application to transfer a permit.

(3) Subject to the regulations, the authority shall not grant a transfer of a permit if, at the time of the application:

(a) the authority is of the opinion that it would not issue a permit to the applicant if the applicant were applying for a permit at that time;

(b) the authority proposes to:

(i) suspend or cancel the permit or any reviewable endorsement to the permit;

(ii) impose new terms and conditions on the permit or any reviewable endorsement to the permit; or

(iii) assess a penalty against the existing permittee pursuant to section 39.1; or

(c) the authority or the commission:

(i) suspends or cancels the permit or any existing reviewable endorsement to the permit;

(ii) imposes new terms and conditions on the permit or any existing reviewable endorsement; or

(iii) assesses a penalty against the existing permittee pursuant to section 39.1.

(4) Notwithstanding clause (3)(c), the authority may grant a transfer of a permit if:

(a) the existing permittee complies with subsection 39.1(9) or (10), as the case may be;

(b) the permit or any existing reviewable endorsement to the permit, having been suspended, is reinstated; and

(c) in the authority's opinion, the existing permittee has complied with the terms and conditions imposed on the permit or any existing reviewable endorsement.

(5) If the authority grants the transfer of a permit, the authority may:

(a) amend or repeal any term or condition imposed by the authority:

(i) on the permit; or

(ii) on any reviewable endorsement on the permit; and

- (b) impose any new term or condition that is permitted by the regulations:
 - (i) on the permit; or
 - (ii) on any reviewable endorsement on the permit.
- (6) The authority shall notify the new permittee, by ordinary mail, of any decision by the authority pursuant to subsection (5).
- (7) Within 15 days after receiving notice of a decision by the authority pursuant to subsection (6), the new permittee may apply to the commission for a review of that decision.
- (8) A notice sent by ordinary mail pursuant to subsection (6) is deemed to have been delivered on the seventh day after the date of its mailing unless the person to whom it is sent establishes to the satisfaction of the commission that, through no fault of that person, the person did not receive it or received it at a later date.
- (9) Sections 30, 31 and 32 apply, with any necessary modification, to an application for a review pursuant to subsection (7).
- (10) Subject to this Act, the regulations and any term or condition imposed by the authority or the commission, if the authority grants a transfer of a permit, the new permittee enjoys the same rights and privileges and is subject to the same duties, responsibilities and liabilities respecting the sale of beverage alcohol and the operation of the permitted premises that the previous permittee enjoyed and was subject to before the permit was transferred to the new permittee.

2002, c.42, s.20; 2014, c.7, s.32.

Inducement to contravene

133 No person shall request or solicit a person to sell beverage alcohol to him or her in contravention of this Act or the regulations.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.133.

Restrictions re advertising

134(1) Subject to subsection (3), no person shall make any representation to the public for the purpose of promoting the sale or consumption of beverage alcohol that is inconsistent with the advertising standards established by the authority.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the authority may establish advertising standards.

(3) Nothing in this section prevents:

- (a) the authority, a franchisee or a permittee from displaying products and the names of products offered for sale within their places of business; or
- (b) a manufacturer from displaying the manufacturer's name or trade mark on any building owned or leased by that manufacturer.

Canvassing

135(1) No person shall canvass for, reserve, take or solicit orders for the purchase or sale of beverage alcohol or act as agent or intermediary for the sale or purchase of beverage alcohol or hold himself or herself out as an agent or intermediary except where permitted by this Act and the regulations.

(2) Every manufacturer must provide to the authority, in the manner and within the time required by the authority, the names and addresses of all agents and representatives employed or engaged by the manufacturer.

(3) No person shall directly or indirectly hold himself or herself out as an agent or representative of a manufacturer unless the manufacturer has provided his or her name and address to the authority in accordance with subsection (2).

1997, c.A-18.011, s.135; 2014, c.7, s.48.

Restrictions on permit applications

136 No person shall:

(a) make application for a licence, certificate of registration or permit pursuant to this Act in the name of a fictitious organization;

(b) make application for a licence, certificate of registration or permit for any purpose not authorized pursuant to this Act and the regulations;

(c) use a fictitious name in applying for a licence, certificate of registration or permit pursuant to this Act; or

(d) make application for a licence, certificate of registration or permit on behalf of a corporation, society, association, club or organization if the person is not, at the time of making the application, an officer or member of the corporation, society, association, club or organization.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.136.

False assertions in applications

137 No person shall knowingly make a false assertion respecting a fact, opinion or belief or respecting specific knowledge in applying for a licence, certificate of registration or a permit pursuant to this Act.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.137.

Unlawful keeping, etc.

138(1) Except as expressly provided in this Act or the regulations, no person shall personally, by employee or agent:

(a) display beverage alcohol for sale;

(b) keep beverage alcohol for sale; or

(c) directly or indirectly sell or offer to sell beverage alcohol.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction:

- (a) in the case of a first offence:
 - (i) to a fine of not less than $500 and not more than $2,500 for an individual and not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000 for a corporation;
 - (ii) imprisonment for not more than two months; or
 - (iii) both the fine and imprisonment; and
- (b) in the case of a second offence or subsequent offence:
 - (i) to a fine of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000 for an individual and not less than $2,500 and not more than $10,000 for a corporation;
 - (ii) imprisonment for a term of not more than three months; or
 - (iii) both the fine and imprisonment.

Penalties

139(1) A person who contravenes any provision of this Act or the regulations or who contravenes an order made by the minister, the authority or the commission pursuant to this Act and for which no other penalty is specifically provided is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to:

- (a) a fine of not more than $10,000 for an individual and not more than $50,000 for a corporation;
- (b) imprisonment for a term of not more than six months; or
- (c) both the fine and imprisonment.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1):

“minister” means:

- (a) the member of the Executive Council to whom for the time being the administration of The Parks Act is assigned; and
- (b) the member of the Executive Council to whom for the time being the administration of The Regional Parks Act, 2013 is assigned; (« ministre »)

“other penalty” does not include a penalty that has been or may be imposed by the authority or the commission pursuant to this Act (« peine particulière »).

1997, c.A-18.011, s.139; 1998, c.16, s.10; 2007, c.10, s.6; 2013, c.29, s.2.

PART VI
Licensed Lotteries

Terms and conditions of licences

140(1) Subject to subsection (2), any licence issued by the authority, other than a licence mentioned in section 141, is deemed to contain and is subject to the following terms and conditions:

- (a) the licensee shall ensure that, if premises are used in the operation or conduct and management of a lottery scheme, those premises are:
 - (i) owned and occupied by the licensee; or
 - (ii) supplied by:
 - (A) a supplier who holds a valid certificate of registration as a supplier; or
 - (B) a person who has no interest in the operation or conduct and management of the lottery scheme other than to provide an interest in or the use or possession of the premises in which the lottery scheme is to be operated;
 - (b) the licensee shall ensure that all gaming employees involved in the operation or conduct and management of the lottery scheme hold valid certificates of registration as gaming employees;
 - (c) the licensee shall ensure that any gaming supplies or services or non-gaming supplies or services used by the licensee in the operation or conduct and management of the lottery scheme are supplied by a supplier who holds a valid certificate of registration as a supplier unless the supplier is exempted from holding a certificate of registration pursuant to clause 144(2)(b);
 - (d) the licensee shall ensure that:
 - (i) if premises are being used to operate a lottery scheme, the licence is prominently posted in those premises; and
 - (ii) if premises are not being used to operate the lottery scheme, the licence is available for inspection.
- (2) If the licensee supplies the gaming supplies or services or non-gaming supplies or services mentioned in clause (1)(a), (b) or (c), the licensee's licence is not subject to the terms and conditions mentioned in that clause.

2002, c.42, s.22.

Local authority licences

141(1) Licences issued by local authorities are deemed to contain and are subject to the following terms:

- (a) the licensee shall use the proceeds of the lottery scheme being conducted for charitable or religious purposes;

- (b) the licensee shall ensure that the total amount of all prizes offered in the conduct of the lottery scheme does not exceed the amount prescribed in the regulations for the purposes of this clause; and
 - (c) the licensee shall not conduct more than one event per week.
- (2) Where a licensee who is issued a licence by a local authority breaches a term of that licence, the licence is void.
- (3) Local authorities may charge the fees prescribed in the regulations for the issuance of licences.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.141; 2014, c.7, s.49.

Local authority records

142 Every local authority that issues licences shall retain for three years and make available for inspection by the authority records showing:

- (a) the name of each licensee who was issued a licence by the local authority;
- (b) the amount or value of the prizes awarded respecting each licensed lottery scheme;
- (c) the revenue generated, expenses incurred and profit realized respecting each licensed lottery scheme; and
- (d) the purpose for which the proceeds from each licensed lottery scheme are to be used.

2014, c.7, s.50.

Form and manner of reports

143(1) Subject to subsection (2), every licensee shall file a report with the authority:

- (a) in the form and manner required by the authority; and
- (b) containing any information the authority may require, including:
 - (i) the dates on which and the places at which lottery schemes were conducted by the licensee;
 - (ii) the accounts relating to the conduct of the lottery scheme; and
 - (iii) the disposition of the proceeds of the lottery scheme.

(2) Unless the authority otherwise requires, subsection (1) does not apply to a licensee whose licence was issued by a local authority.

PART VII
Gaming

Authorization to work

144(1) No person shall work as a gaming employee unless that person:

PART VII.01

First Nation Gaming Licensing Authorities

Agreement re granting of on-reserve certificates of registration

147.01(1) If a First Nation gaming licensing authority enters into an agreement with the authority, in the form required by the authority, the First Nation gaming licensing authority may, in accordance with this Act, the regulations and the terms and conditions of the agreement:

- (a) grant any application for an on-reserve certificate of registration on any terms and conditions it considers appropriate;
- (b) refuse any application for an on-reserve certificate of registration;
- (c) refer an application for an on-reserve certificate of registration to the commission for a hearing pursuant to clause 26(2)(b) if the First Nation gaming licensing authority is of the opinion that it is in the public interest to conduct a hearing;
- (d) determine the duration of on-reserve certificates of registration;
- (e) assess a penalty pursuant to section 147.07 against an on-reserve registrant;
- (f) at the time it assesses a penalty pursuant to clause (e), determine the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full;

- (g) suspend an on-reserve certificate of registration in accordance with section 34.1, either alone or in conjunction with assessing a penalty pursuant to clause (e);
 - (h) cancel an on-reserve certificate of registration in accordance with section 34.1; and
 - (i) perform any other function that is:
 - (i) in the opinion of the First Nation gaming licensing authority, necessary to carry out the powers conferred on it in accordance with this section; and
 - (ii) consistent with the terms and conditions of the agreement between the authority and the First Nation gaming licensing authority.
- (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may, by order, suspend or cancel:
- (a) any agreement entered into pursuant to subsection (1); or
 - (b) any power granted to a First Nation gaming licensing authority under an agreement entered into pursuant to subsection (1).
- (3) If the power of a First Nation gaming licensing authority with respect to an on-reserve registrant is suspended or cancelled by an order passed pursuant to subsection (2), the authority may deal with the on-reserve registrant and its on-reserve certificate of registration as the authority would with any registrant and any certificate of registration granted by the authority.
- (4) An order passed pursuant to subsection (2) does not affect a hearing of the commission conducted pursuant to section 26 with respect to the First Nation gaming licensing authority.

2014, c.7, s.52.

Authorization to work – on-reserve registrants

- 147.02(1) No person shall work as an on-reserve employee unless that person:
- (a) has been granted an on-reserve certificate of registration that authorizes the person to work as an on-reserve employee; or
 - (b) is exempted by the regulations from the requirement to obtain an on-reserve certificate of registration to work as an on-reserve employee.
- (2) No person shall act as an on-reserve supplier unless that person:
- (a) has been granted an on-reserve certificate of registration that authorizes the person to act as an on-reserve supplier; or
 - (b) is exempted by the regulations from the requirement to obtain an on-reserve certificate of registration to act as an on-reserve supplier.

(3) Any person who seeks information from a First Nation gaming licensing authority as to whether a person is registered pursuant to this Act as an on-reserve employee or an on-reserve supplier is entitled to that information without delay and without payment of any fee.

2014, c.7, s.52.

Application for on-reserve certificate of registration

147.03 Any person who applies to a First Nation gaming licensing authority to be registered as an on-reserve employee or an on-reserve supplier shall:

- (a) apply in a form acceptable to the First Nation gaming licensing authority; and
- (b) provide any information that the First Nation gaming licensing authority may require.

2014, c.7, s.52.

Requirements for on-reserve certificate of registration

“affiliate” means an affiliate within the meaning of The Business Corporations Act; (« affilié »)

“applicant” means an applicant who applies for an on-reserve certificate of registration pursuant to this Part; (« demandeur »)

“principal” means, with respect to an applicant:

- (a) every partner of the partnership, if the applicant is a partnership;
- (b) every officer and director of the corporation, if the applicant is a corporation;
- (c) every employee of the applicant who has the authority to set management policies, enter into contracts or exercise authority on behalf of the applicant with respect to the operations, finances or sales of the applicant or with respect to the applicant’s compliance with gaming laws; and
- (d) every affiliate of the applicant, including:
 - (i) every officer and director of the affiliate; and
 - (ii) every employee of the affiliate who has the authority to set management policies, enter into contracts or exercise authority on behalf of the affiliate with respect to the operations, finances or sales of the affiliate or with respect to the affiliate’s compliance with gaming laws. (« mandant »)

(2) For the purposes of this section, a person is interested in an applicant or a principal if, in the opinion of the First Nation gaming licensing authority, the person:

- (a) has a beneficial interest in the applicant or principal or in the applicant’s business;

- (b) has the power to influence, directly or indirectly, the applicant or principal or the applicant's business; or
 - (c) has provided financing, directly or indirectly, to the applicant or principal or to the applicant's business.
- (3) If a person applies to a First Nation gaming licensing authority to be registered as an on-reserve employee, the First Nation gaming licensing authority shall not grant an on-reserve certificate of registration to that person unless, in the opinion of the First Nation gaming licensing authority, the applicant:
- (a) is of good character; and
 - (b) has suitable training or experience.
- (4) If a person applies to a First Nation gaming licensing authority to be registered as an on-reserve supplier, the First Nation gaming licensing authority shall not grant an on-reserve certificate of registration to that person unless, in the opinion of the First Nation gaming licensing authority:
- (a) the applicant:
 - (i) is of good character;
 - (ii) has demonstrated financial responsibility; and
 - (iii) is capable of supplying gaming supplies or services or non-gaming supplies or services that are suitable for the purpose for which those supplies or services are to be provided; and
 - (b) the principal and every person interested in the applicant or the principal:
 - (i) are of good character; and
 - (ii) have demonstrated financial responsibility.
- (5) The First Nation gaming licensing authority may make inquiries and conduct investigations with respect to the character, financial responsibility and capability of:
- (a) an applicant, principal or person interested in an applicant or principal; and
 - (b) an associate or employee of any person mentioned in clause (a).
- (6) Subject to the regulations, an applicant shall pay to the First Nation gaming licensing authority the reasonable costs of any inquiry or investigation that the First Nation gaming licensing authority makes or conducts in accordance with subsection (5).
- (7) If the regulations require that a person be bonded, the First Nation gaming licensing authority shall not issue an on-reserve certificate of registration to that person until he or she is bonded in accordance with the regulations.

- (8) Subject to subsections (3), (4) and (7), a First Nation gaming licensing authority may:
- (a) register and grant on-reserve certificates of registration in the form provided by the First Nation gaming licensing authority to persons who have applied to be registered and set the terms and conditions of the registration of those persons; or
 - (b) if the application is for a renewal, renew an on-reserve certificate of registration granted pursuant to clause (a) and set the terms and conditions of that renewal.
- (9) No on-reserve employee shall fail to comply with the conditions set out in subsection (3) for the term for which his or her on-reserve certificate of registration is granted.
- (10) No on-reserve supplier shall fail to comply with the conditions set out in subsection (4) for the term for which his or her on-reserve certificate of registration is granted.
- (11) A First Nation gaming licensing authority may amend, vary, or repeal and substitute any terms and conditions imposed pursuant to clause (8)(a) or (b) or impose new terms and conditions after it has granted or renewed an on-reserve certificate of registration.
- (12) Within 15 days after being notified of a decision by the First Nation gaming licensing authority to impose terms and conditions on an on-reserve certificate of registration pursuant to subsection (11), the on-reserve employee or on-reserve supplier, as the case may be, may apply for a review of those terms and conditions by the commission.
- (13) Sections 30 and 31 apply, with any necessary modification, to an application for review pursuant to subsection (12).

2014, c.7, s.52.

Reports to be filed

147.05 Every on-reserve registrant shall file a report with the First Nation gaming licensing authority that issued the on-reserve certificate of registration:

- (a) in the form and manner required by the First Nation gaming licensing authority; and
- (b) containing any information that the First Nation gaming licensing authority may require, including:
 - (i) in the case of an on-reserve employee:
 - (A) the records and other documents relating to his or her employment as an on-reserve employee; and
 - (B) the names of those persons who have employed him or her as an on-reserve employee; and

- (ii) in the case of an on-reserve supplier:
 - (A) the accounts relating to his or her business as an on-reserve supplier; and
 - (B) the names of those persons with whom he or she has done business in his or her capacity as an on-reserve supplier.

2014, c.7, s.52.

Terms and conditions of on-reserve certificate of registration

147.06(1) Every on-reserve certificate of registration is subject to all the terms and conditions imposed by this Act, the regulations, the commission, and the First Nation gaming licensing authority that issued the on-reserve certificate of registration.

(2) No on-reserve registrant shall fail to comply with any term or condition imposed on his or her on-reserve certificate of registration by this Act, the regulations, the commission, or the First Nation gaming licensing authority that issued the on-reserve certificate of registration.

2014, c.7, s.52.

Administrative penalties

147.07(1) If an on-reserve registrant fails to comply with any term or condition imposed on an on-reserve certificate of registration by this Act, the regulations, the First Nation gaming licensing authority or the commission, the First Nation gaming licensing authority or the commission may assess a penalty, within the limits prescribed in the regulations, of not more than $10,000 against the on-reserve registrant in accordance with this section.

(2) No penalty is to be assessed by the First Nation gaming licensing authority or the commission more than three years after the date on which the failure to comply with any term or condition mentioned in subsection (1) first came to the knowledge of the First Nation gaming licensing authority.

(3) Before assessing a penalty against an on-reserve registrant pursuant to subsection (1), the First Nation gaming licensing authority shall provide to the on-reserve registrant a written notice:

- (a) setting out the facts and circumstances that, in the opinion of the First Nation gaming licensing authority, render the on-reserve registrant liable to the penalty;
- (b) proposing:
 - (i) the amount of the penalty;
 - (ii) the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full; and
 - (iii) if applicable, the period of suspension if the on-reserve registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date;

- (c) advising the on-reserve registrant that it may make representations to the commission respecting:
 - (i) whether or not a penalty should be assessed;
 - (ii) the amount of the penalty;
 - (iii) the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full;
 - (iv) whether or not the on-reserve certificate of registration should be suspended if the on-reserve registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date; and
 - (v) if the on-reserve certificate of registration is suspended for the on-reserve registrant's failure to pay the penalty in full by the specified date, the period of suspension;
 - (d) informing the on-reserve registrant that, if it does not notify the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the First Nation gaming licensing authority may:
 - (i) assess a penalty up to the amount proposed in the notice;
 - (ii) determine the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full; and
 - (iii) order that the on-reserve certificate of registration will be suspended for a period up to that proposed in the notice if the on-reserve registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date; and
 - (e) informing the on-reserve registrant that, if it notifies the commission within 15 days after receiving the notice that it intends to make representations to the commission, the commission may, either following a hearing conducted pursuant to this section or if the on-reserve registrant fails, without the prior approval of the commission, to appear at the hearing:
 - (i) assess a penalty up to the amount proposed in the notice or in any other amount within the limits prescribed in the regulations;
 - (ii) determine the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full; and
 - (iii) order that the on-reserve certificate of registration will be suspended for a period up to that proposed in the notice if the on-reserve registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date.
- (4) An on-reserve registrant that receives a written notice pursuant to subsection (3) may, within 15 days after receiving the written notice, apply for an oral hearing with the commission by:
- (a) filing an application with the commission; and
 - (b) paying the fee prescribed in the regulations.

- (5) The application for a hearing mentioned in subsection (4):
 - (a) is to be substantially in the form prescribed in the regulations; and
 - (b) may be accompanied by any other information that the applicant wishes the commission to consider.
- (6) Subsection 32(2) applies, with any necessary modification, to a hearing conducted pursuant to this section.
- (7) If an applicant who requests an oral hearing pursuant to this section fails to appear at the oral hearing without the prior approval of the commission, subsections 32(3) and (4) apply, with any necessary modification.
- (8) If the First Nation gaming licensing authority has provided written notice to the on-reserve registrant in accordance with subsection (3) and the on-reserve registrant does not apply for an oral hearing pursuant to subsection (4), the First Nation gaming licensing authority may:
 - (a) assess a penalty up to the amount proposed in the written notice provided pursuant to subsection (3);
 - (b) determine the date by which the penalty is to be paid in full; and
 - (c) order that the on-reserve certificate of registration will be suspended for a period up to that proposed in the written notice provided pursuant to subsection (3) if the on-reserve registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date.
- (9) If the First Nation gaming licensing authority assesses a penalty pursuant to subsection (8), the First Nation gaming licensing authority shall provide to the on-reserve registrant a written notice specifying:
 - (a) the amount of the penalty;
 - (b) the date by which the penalty must be paid in full; and
 - (c) the period of suspension if the on-reserve registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date.
- (10) If the commission assesses a penalty following a hearing conducted pursuant to this section or in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (7), the First Nation gaming licensing authority shall provide to the on-reserve registrant a written notice specifying:
 - (a) the amount of the penalty;
 - (b) the date by which the penalty must be paid in full; and
 - (c) the period of suspension if the on-reserve registrant fails to pay the penalty in full by the determined date.

(11) A written notice pursuant to subsection (3), (9) or (10) is to be served in accordance with subsection 27(4).

(12) A penalty assessed pursuant to this section is a debt due to and recoverable by the First Nation gaming licensing authority and may be recovered in any manner authorized by law.

(13) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act or the regulations, an on-reserve registrant has no right to a hearing, review or appeal if the First Nation gaming licensing authority or the commission suspends an on-reserve certificate of registration for the failure by the on-reserve registrant to pay a penalty in full by a date determined by the First Nation gaming licensing authority or the commission in accordance with this section.

2014, c.7, s.52.

Effective date of on-reserve certificate of registration

147.08 An on-reserve certificate of registration becomes effective on the date stated on the on-reserve certificate of registration as the effective date, or if no effective date is stated, on the date of issue of the on-reserve certificate of registration.

2014, c.7, s.52.

Fees

147.09(1) A First Nation gaming licensing authority may charge a fee for the issuance of an on-reserve certificate of registration.

(2) Every application for an on-reserve certificate of registration is to be accompanied by the fee set by the First Nation gaming licensing authority.

2014, c.7, s.52.

On-reserve certificate of registration not transferable

147.091(1) Every on-reserve certificate of registration is to be issued in the name of the applicant.

(2) No on-reserve certificate of registration is transferable.

2014, c.7, s.52.

On-reserve certificate of registration is property of First Nation gaming licensing authority

147.092 Every on-reserve certificate of registration is the property of the First Nation gaming licensing authority that issued it, and if an on-reserve certificate of registration is cancelled or suspended, the on-reserve registrant shall immediately return it to the First Nation gaming licensing authority.

2014, c.7, s.52.

PART VII.1
When Operators May Refuse Persons Access to Casinos

Interpretation of Part

147.1 In this Part:

“operator” means the Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation, the Saskatchewan Indian Gaming Authority or an exhibition casino operator, and includes an employee of any of them; (« exploitant »)

“self-exclusion program” means a program offered by an operator pursuant to which a person participating in the program may instruct the operator to refuse the person access to any casino operated by that operator. (« programme d’autoexclusion »)

2005, c.3, s.23.

Right to refuse access to casino

147.2(1) If an operator of a casino has reason to believe that the presence of a person in the casino is undesirable:

(a) the operator may ask the person to leave the casino immediately for a period of not less than the remainder of that day; and

(b) if the operator considers it appropriate to deny the person access to the casino for a period greater than the remainder of that day, on written notice delivered to the person, the operator may deny the person access to any casino in Saskatchewan operated by that operator for any period specified in the notice.

(2) An operator shall notify the authority in writing of any person whom the operator has refused access to a casino for any period greater than 14 consecutive days.

(3) An operator of a casino shall refuse a person access to the casino or ask a person to leave the casino immediately:

(a) if the operator is aware that the person is prohibited from entering a casino in Saskatchewan through participation in a self-exclusion program; or

(b) in any other circumstances that may be prescribed in the regulations.

2005, c.3, s.23.

Application for review by commission

147.3(1) A person who has been denied access to a casino pursuant to clause 147.2(1)(b) may apply to the commission for a review of the operator’s decision.

(2) Section 31 applies, with any necessary modification, to an application for review pursuant to this section.

Prohibitions

147.4 No person shall:

- (a) remain in a casino after he or she has been asked by the operator to leave the casino;
- (b) if the person has been asked by the operator to leave a casino pursuant to clause 147.2(1)(a), re-enter or attempt to re-enter that casino again that day;
- (c) if the person has received written notice pursuant to clause 147.2(1)(b), enter or attempt to enter any casino in Saskatchewan:
 - (i) subject to subclause (ii), within the period specified in the notice; or
 - (ii) on review by the commission, within any period set by the commission;
- (d) while prohibited through participation in a self-exclusion program, enter or attempt to enter any casino in Saskatchewan.

PART VIII
Horse Racing

Saskatchewan Horse Racing and Breeding Advisory Board

148(1) The minister may appoint a board to be known as the Saskatchewan Horse Racing and Breeding Advisory Board, consisting of the persons appointed as members by the minister.

(2) The minister may designate one member of the board as chairperson and another member as vice-chairperson.

(3) The board may advise the minister or the authority respecting any matter relating to horse racing or the operation of racetracks.

(4) The board shall advise the minister or the authority respecting any matter referred to it by the minister or the authority.

PART IX
Procedure
DIVISION 1
Enforcement Powers

Arrest without warrant

149 Any officer may arrest, without warrant, any person whom he or she finds committing an offence against this Act or the regulations.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.149.

Power to demand names, etc.

150(1) Where an officer has entered premises and seized beverage alcohol, the officer may demand the name and address of any person found in the premises.

(2) Where the person fails or refuses to provide his or her name and address or provides a name and address that the officer has reasonable grounds to believe are false, the officer may apprehend that person without warrant and bring him or her as soon as possible before a justice.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.150.

Search with warrant

151(1) A justice may issue a warrant to search a place or premises named in the warrant and seize anything that may be evidence of an offence against this Act or the regulations or a breach of a term of a certificate of registration on the oath of an officer that there are reasonable grounds to believe that:

(a) an offence against this Act or the regulations has occurred and that beverage alcohol is being kept for sale or disposal contrary to this Act or the regulations in the place or premises; or

(b) an offence against this Act or the regulations or a breach of a term of a certificate of registration has occurred and evidence of that offence or breach is likely to be found in the place or premises.

(2) An officer with a warrant issued pursuant to subsection (1) may:

(a) enter and search any place or premises named in the warrant;

(b) open and examine any trunk, box, bag, parcel, closet, cupboard or receptacle that he or she finds in the place or premises named in the warrant;

(c) seize anything that may be evidence of an offence against this Act or the regulations or a breach of a term of a certificate of registration; and

(d) seize and remove any beverage alcohol and the containers in which it is found that may have been kept for sale or obtained in contravention of this Act or the regulations.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.151.

Search with warrant re conveyance

152(1) In this section and in section 154, “conveyance” includes a vehicle, aircraft, boat or other means of transport. («moyen de transport»)

(2) A justice may issue a warrant to search a conveyance named in the warrant and seize anything that may be evidence of an offence against this Act or the regulations on the oath of an officer that there are reasonable grounds to believe that:

(a) an offence against this Act or the regulations has occurred; and

(b) evidence of an offence is likely to be found in the conveyance.

- (3) An officer with a warrant issued pursuant to subsection (2) may:
- (a) enter and search any conveyance named in the warrant;
 - (b) open and examine any trunk, box, bag, parcel, closet, cupboard or receptacle that he or she finds in the conveyance named in the warrant;
 - (c) seize anything that may be evidence of an offence against this Act or the regulations; and
 - (d) seize and remove any beverage alcohol and the containers in which it is found.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.152.

Search without warrant

153(1) In this section and in section 154, “exigent circumstances” means circumstances in which an officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the delay necessary to obtain a warrant pursuant to section 151 or 152 would result in danger to human life or safety or the loss, removal or destruction of evidence. (situation urgente)

(2) Subject to subsection (3), an officer may exercise any of the powers mentioned in subsection 151(2) or 152(3) without a warrant issued pursuant to that section if the conditions for obtaining the warrant exist and there are exigent circumstances.

(3) No officer shall enter a private place within the meaning of clause 106(1)(a) without a warrant issued pursuant to section 151 or 152 unless the occupant of the private place consents to the entry.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.153.

Search and seizure of conveyance

154(1) An officer may seize any conveyance in which he or she finds beverage alcohol that the officer believes, on reasonable grounds, is intended for sale or has been purchased or obtained in contravention of this Act:

- (a) with a warrant issued pursuant to section 151 or 152; or
- (b) where conditions for obtaining a warrant exist but there are exigent circumstances.

(2) Where a conveyance is seized pursuant to subsection (1), the officer shall immediately notify the authority of the seizure and the circumstances under which the seizure occurred.

(3) If a conveyance is seized pursuant to subsection (1) and the owner or person in possession of the conveyance at the time it was seized is charged with the commission of an offence pursuant to this Act, he or she is responsible for all costs associated with the seizure and storage of the conveyance.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.154; 2014, c.7, s.53.

DIVISION 2

Forfeiture

Conveyances

155(1) Where a conveyance is seized pursuant to section 154 and the owner or person in possession of the conveyance at the time it was seized is charged with the commission of an offence pursuant to this Act, a justice may order that the conveyance be held until the charge has been disposed of by the courts.

(2) If an owner or person in possession mentioned in subsection (1) is convicted of an offence pursuant to this Act, other than an offence pursuant to section 125 or 126, the justice, having regard to all of the circumstances and in addition to any other penalty imposed, may order that the conveyance be forfeited to the Crown if the justice is satisfied that the conveyance was used in connection with the commission of the offence.

(3) An order for forfeiture does not affect any interest of a party who has:

- (a) not participated in the commission of the offence; and
- (b) exercised reasonable care to satisfy himself or herself that the conveyance was not likely to be used in connection with the commission of an offence pursuant to this Act.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.155; 2014, c.7, s.54.

Disposition of seized beverage alcohol

156(1) In this section, “beverage alcohol” means beverage alcohol and the container in which the beverage alcohol was present at the time the beverage alcohol was seized pursuant to this Act.

(2) If beverage alcohol is seized pursuant to this Act, any person claiming to be the owner of the beverage alcohol may apply to a justice, in accordance with the regulations, within 60 days after the seizure, for an order releasing the beverage alcohol to the applicant.

(3) On an application made pursuant to subsection (2), the justice, having regard to all of the circumstances, may order that:

- (a) if the applicant or person in possession of the beverage alcohol at the time it was seized is charged with an offence pursuant to this Act, all or part of the beverage alcohol be held until the charge has been disposed of by the courts;
- (b) all or part of the beverage alcohol be forfeited to the Crown; or
- (c) all or part of the beverage alcohol be released to the applicant.

(4) If an order is made pursuant to clause (3)(a), the applicant may reapply to a justice, in accordance with the regulations, within 60 days after the charge has been disposed of by the courts, and the justice may order that:

- (a) all or part of the beverage alcohol be forfeited to the Crown; or
- (b) all or part of the beverage alcohol be released to the applicant.

(5) Unless a person claiming to be the owner of the beverage alcohol applies to a justice within the period mentioned in subsection (2) or (4), the beverage alcohol is forfeited to the Crown.

2014, c.7, s.55.

157 Repealed. 2014, c.7, s.55.

158 Repealed. 2014, c.7, s.55.

159 Repealed. 2014, c.7, s.55.

160 Repealed. 2014, c.7, s.55.

Alcohol shipped in fictitious name

161 If it appears to the justice that beverage alcohol was consigned to some person in a fictitious name, or was shipped as other goods, or was covered or concealed in a manner that would probably render discovery of the nature of the contents of the vessel, cask or container in which the beverage alcohol was contained more difficult, that fact is admissible, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, as proof that the beverage alcohol was intended to be sold or kept for sale or to be kept in contravention of this Act, or was bought or obtained in contravention of this Act.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.161.

Disposal of beverage alcohol forfeited

162 All beverage alcohol forfeited to the Crown shall be sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with any directions of the authority.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.162; 2014, c.7, s.56.

Statement and inventory of seized beverage alcohol

163 When an officer seizes beverage alcohol pursuant to any provision of this Act, the officer shall immediately prepare a statement and inventory of the beverage alcohol.

2014, c.7, s.57.

DIVISION 3
Court Matters

Notice of certificates

164 No certificate that is allowed by this Act to be introduced in any proceeding or trial is to be received in evidence in that proceeding or trial unless, before that proceeding or trial, any person who is adversely affected by that certificate has received:

- (a) reasonable notice that the certificate will be introduced; and
- (b) a copy of the certificate.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.164.

Describing offences in information

165 In describing offences respecting the sale or other disposal of beverage alcohol or the keeping or the consumption of beverage alcohol in any information, summons, conviction, warrant or proceeding pursuant to this Act:

- (a) it is sufficient to simply state the sale, disposal, keeping or consumption of beverage alcohol, without stating the name or kind of beverage alcohol or the price of it or the name of any person to whom it was sold or disposed of or by whom it was consumed; and
- (b) it is not necessary to state the quantity of beverage alcohol sold, disposed of, kept or consumed except in the case of offences where the quantity is essential, and, in that case, it is sufficient to allege the sale or disposal of more or less than the quantity that the case requires.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.165.

Proof of previous convictions

166 A certificate of a previous conviction purporting to be under the hand of the convicting justice or the local registrar of the Court of Queen's Bench or other court officer to whose office the conviction has been returned is admissible, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, as proof of the facts stated in the certificate without proof of signature or official character.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.166.

Conviction for several offences

167(1) Convictions for several offences may be made pursuant to this Act even though the offences have been committed on the same day, but the increased penalty or punishment imposed in this Act is to be incurred or awarded only in the case of offences committed on different days and after an information is laid for a first offence.

(2) Where the penalty that may be imposed on a conviction for a second or subsequent offence against this Act is greater than for a first offence, a conviction pursuant to any former Alcohol and Gaming Regulation Act, Liquor Act or Liquor Licensing Act is deemed to be, respecting the imposition of the penalty, a first conviction for a like offence pursuant to this Act.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.167.

Proof of licence

168 A certificate issued by the authority stating the following is admissible, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, as proof of the facts stated in the certificate without proof of the appointment or signature of the person purporting to have signed it:

- (a) that a licence, permit, horse-racing licence or certificate of registration has been issued;
- (b) that no licence, permit, horse-racing licence or certificate of registration has been issued.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.168.

Certificate of analyst

169(1) The authority may appoint any person as an analyst for the purpose of analyzing beverage alcohol pursuant to this Act.

(2) The authority may establish the form of the certificate of analysis to be issued by an analyst appointed pursuant to subsection (1).

(3) In every prosecution pursuant to this Act, a certificate of analysis purporting to be signed by a person appointed an analyst for the purpose of analyzing beverage alcohol is admissible, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, as proof of the facts stated in the certificate and of the authority of the person issuing the certificate without proof of appointment or signature of the person purporting to have signed it.

(4) For the purposes of this Act, any liquid or substance that contains more than 0.5% by volume of alcohol is conclusively deemed to be intoxicating and a certificate of analysis made pursuant to this section stating that a liquid or substance contains more than 1% by volume of alcohol is admissible, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, as proof that the liquid or substance is beverage alcohol.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.169.

Inference respecting beverage alcohol

170 The justice trying a case may, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, infer that any liquid or substance in question is beverage alcohol within the meaning of this Act from the fact that a witness describes it as beverage alcohol or liquor or by a name that is commonly applied to beverage alcohol.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.170.

Proof of contravention

171 In proving the purchase, sale or gratuitous or other disposal or consumption of beverage alcohol for the purposes of a proceeding respecting an offence pursuant to this Act, it is not necessary to show that money passed or that beverage alcohol was consumed, if the justice hearing the case is satisfied that a transaction in the nature of a sale or other disposal took place or that any consumption of beverage alcohol was about to take place.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.171.

Precise description unnecessary

172 In a prosecution for the sale or other disposal of beverage alcohol in contravention of this Act, it is not necessary that any witness depose directly to the precise description of the beverage alcohol sold or bartered or to the precise consideration for the beverage alcohol.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.172.

PART X
Property, Accounts and Finance

Moneys and property belong to Saskatchewan

173 All property, whether real or personal, and all moneys acquired, administered, possessed or received by the authority, and all profits earned in the administration of this Act and the regulations are the property of the Crown.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.173; 2014, c.7, s.58.

Insuring properties

174 The authority may cause any property mentioned in section 173 to be insured against loss by fire or from any other cause.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.174.

Bonding of employees

175 All persons employed by the authority who receive or disburse moneys in the course of their employment shall be bonded in those amounts that may be required by the authority for accounting for money or goods that may come into their hands or under their control.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.175.

Loans

176(1) The authority, with the approval of the Minister of Finance, may borrow money from any bank governed by the Bank Act (Canada) on those terms and with those times of repayment that the authority thinks advisable and necessary.

(2) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, from time to time, and on any terms as are deemed expedient, authorize the guarantee by the Minister of Finance, on behalf of the Government of Saskatchewan, of the repayment of all moneys borrowed by the authority pursuant to this section.

(3) A guarantee given pursuant to subsection (2) renders the Government of Saskatchewan liable for the repayment of the moneys borrowed, and is conclusive evidence of the liability of the government.

(4) The Minister of Finance is authorized to advance out of the general revenue fund amounts that are necessary for the purpose of discharging, in whole or in part, all or any liabilities of the authority guaranteed pursuant to subsection (2).

(5) Any moneys advanced pursuant to subsection (4) shall be repaid by the authority in those amounts and at those times that the Minister of Finance may decide, and until paid bear interest, for credit to the general revenue fund, at any rate that may be determined by the Minister of Finance.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.176.

Bank account

177 All moneys received by the authority for the purposes of or in the administration of this Act shall be deposited in a financial institution to be designated by the Minister of Finance to the credit of the authority.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.177.

All moneys payable to the authority

178(1) All moneys payable by any person pursuant to this Act as fees for the issuing of licences, horse-racing licences, horse-racing registrations, permits or certificates of registration shall be paid to the authority and not to the commission, and all revenues derived from the sale of beverage alcohol or any other source pursuant to this Act shall be paid to the authority.

(2) All moneys in the hands of or standing to the credit of the authority and all property, real and personal, controlled or possessed by or standing in the name of the commission shall be transferred to the authority in that manner and on those terms that Treasury Board may direct.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.178.

Expenses to be charged against receipts

179 The authority shall pay from the moneys received by it pursuant to this Act:

- (a) the expenses, debts and liabilities of the authority in carrying out its duties and exercising its powers pursuant to this Act;
- (b) the expenses, debts and liabilities of the commission in carrying out its duties and exercising its powers pursuant to this Act;
- (c) the salaries or remuneration of members of the authority and members of the commission; and
- (d) with the approval of Treasury Board, all other expenses relating in any manner to the matters mentioned in this Act.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.179.

Treasury Board orders and directives

180 Treasury Board may make orders and issue directives with regard to the financial conduct of the administration of this Act by the authority that it considers expedient.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.180.

Books and accounts

181(1) The fiscal year of the authority is the period commencing on April 1 in one year and ending on March 31 in the following year.

(2) The Provincial Auditor, or any other auditor or firm of auditors that the Lieutenant Governor in Council may appoint, shall audit the accounts and financial statements of the authority annually and at any other time that the Lieutenant Governor in Council may require.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.181.

Disposition of profits of the authority

182(1) Treasury Board may, at any time, direct that all or any portion of the retained earnings of the authority be transferred to the general revenue fund.

(2) The authority shall pay to the Minister of Finance, on the minister's requisition, the retained earnings directed to be transferred pursuant to subsection (1).

(3) The authority may advance to the Minister of Finance amounts on account of moneys payable to the Minister of Finance pursuant to subsection (2).

(4) Treasury Board may, at any time, direct that a portion of the retained earnings of the authority may be set aside for the creation of a reserve fund to meet any loss that may be incurred, or to finance any anticipated extraordinary capital expenditure.

(5) Where Treasury Board has not determined the disposition of the whole or any portion of the retained earnings of the authority, pursuant to subsection (1) or (4), the authority may:

(a) from time to time, advance to the Minister of Finance amounts for deposit in the general revenue fund; or

(b) with the approval of the Investment Board, invest amounts in any of the classes of securities in which moneys may be invested pursuant to The Financial Administration Act, 1993.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.182.

Annual statement and report

183(1) In each fiscal year the authority, in accordance with section 13 of The Executive Government Administration Act, shall prepare and submit to the minister:

(a) a report of the authority on its business for the preceding fiscal year; and

(b) a financial statement showing the business of the authority for the preceding fiscal year in any form that may be required by Treasury Board.

(2) The minister, in accordance with section 13 of The Executive Government Administration Act shall lay before the Legislative Assembly each report and statement received by him or her pursuant to subsection (1).

1997, c.A-18.011, s.183; 2014, c.11, s.9.

PART XI
General

Oath of office

184 Every member of the commission and every member and employee of the authority shall take the oath of office prescribed in the regulations.

1997, c.A-18.011, s.184.

Regulations

185(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations:

- (a) defining, enlarging or restricting the meaning of any word or expression used in this Act but not defined in this Act;
 - (a.1) prescribing persons or classes of persons as gaming regulators;
- (b) respecting classes of permits and the rights, terms and obligations respecting each class of permits;
- (c) respecting the powers of the authority to issue classes of permits;
- (d) respecting the terms under which the authority may issue certain permits or grant certain endorsements or transfers of permits;
- (e) respecting the power of the authority to set additional terms respecting individual permits or endorsements or classes of permits or endorsements;
 - (e.1) for the purposes of subsection 19(3), prescribing the procedures to be followed and the conditions pursuant to which the authority may establish a sealed bid process in the allocation of off-sale endorsements;
- (f) respecting the powers of the authority to suspend or cancel individual permits or endorsements;
 - (f.1) prescribing penalties that may be assessed by the authority, a First Nation gaming licensing authority or the commission;

- (g) Repealed. 2008, c.8, s.29.
- (h) respecting the information required to be supplied by an applicant for a permit, endorsement or transfer of a permit and the forms to be used for the application;
 - (h.1) prescribing notice requirements for the purposes of clause 62(3)(b);
- (i) limiting the quantities of any item mentioned in clauses 90(b) to (e) that may be sold by any person mentioned in those clauses;
- (j) prescribing the particulars to be provided by an applicant on an application for a licence;
- (k) determining the duration of licences or permits issued pursuant to this Act;

- (l) prescribing terms respecting licences, permits or endorsements issued pursuant to this Act;
- (m) prescribing restrictions respecting authority of permittees to purchase, keep and sell beverage alcohol;
- (n) prescribing the manner in which the restocking fee mentioned in subsection 65(2) is calculated;
- (o) respecting endorsements of rights and restrictions to be placed on permits;
- (o.1) prescribing reviewable endorsements for the purpose of this Act;
- (o.2) prescribing the grounds respecting an objection for the purposes of subsections 26(3), 29(3) and 63(6);
- (p) respecting permits relating to premises that are destroyed;
- (q) respecting permits where any permittee has died;
- (q.1) prescribing the circumstances in which the authority may authorize the transfer of a permit in accordance with section 69.1;
- (q.2) respecting the powers of the authority to grant a transfer of a permit;
- (q.3) prescribing terms and conditions on permits and reviewable endorsements that are transferred pursuant to section 69.1;
- (q.4) respecting the power of the authority to set additional terms and conditions respecting permits that are transferred pursuant to section 69.1;
- (q.5) respecting the information required to be supplied by an applicant for a transfer of a permit and the forms to be used for the application;
- (r) prescribing and requiring returns by manufacturers;
- (s) authorizing the presence of persons in permitted premises;
- (t) prescribing the area and seating capacity for permitted premises;
- (u) providing for the possession, sale and keeping for sale of beverage alcohol for compounding purposes;
- (v) prescribing the fees:
 - (i) for licences, permits and endorsements, for applications for licences, permits, endorsements and transfers of permits and any other fees required to be paid by licensees or permittees;
 - (ii) to be paid by applicants for certificates of registration;
 - (iii) payable for any goods, materials or services provided by the authority to any person; and
 - (iv) for the purposes of clause 31(1)(c), payable to the commission respecting applications for review;

- (w) prescribing the qualifications of club premises respecting permits issued to clubs pursuant to this Act;
- (x) prescribing the quantities and manner of sale of beverage alcohol in closed containers;
- (x.1) prescribing beverage alcohol or classes of beverage alcohol for the purposes of subsection 74(2);
- (x.2) prescribing permits or classes of permits for the purposes of clause 75(5)(a);
